FEAR KING NEAR DEATH

PREDICT ARREST OF CANTON WOMAN ASSASSIN

ROGERS ASSERTS COOLIDGE WILL BE 1936 ENTRY

(Special To The News)

NEW YORK, Dec. 11. — I told you Mr. Coolidge would run again some day. Didn't you see where he asked this St. Louis Post Dispatch to get another White House where you could escape the asphyxiation of the other end of Pennsylvania avenue? That request couldn't have been made for Hoover, for it will take eight years to get it through congress.

I think that trip to Virginia the other day did it, when for the first time he saw Washington's and Jefferson's old week-end hideaways. But he can acquire the same results by just shutting the gates on the house he is in.

It's not the humidity in Washington, it's the humility in having to meet who you do. Every senator with a hill east of the Rocky Mountains will start trying to peddle it to us now.

Yours,
WILL.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Abandoned church buildings about the countryside are being taken over for new uses. Recently it was announced that an old church building in Harlansburg had been converted into a gymnasium for basketball teams. Now comes an announcement from Enon Valley of similar action there. And it is recalled that the gymnasium used by New Wilmington high school was also a former church building.

While talking about the matter of erecting safety stop signs, there are two intersections on the north hill that should be designated. Where Hillcrest avenue comes onto Highfrom the east, and where Norwood avenue comes onto Highland from the west, should be marked. Both of these streets are exits of paved thoroughfares onto Highland that are much travelled and the practice of some drivers of shooting out onto Highland without a stop is dangerous.

Pa Newc is of the opinion that it would be a good idea to hang tail lights on the elephants when they are being moved through the streets after night. He met the bunch in the darkness, enroute up Jefferson street hill last night.

In making up the paving schedule or the ensuing year, when councilmen are considering the budget, it appears to Pa Newc that Euclid avenue is one of the streets that should be paved. It is the main entrance to the magnificent new George Washington Junior High School. Another street that needs paving is Blaine street.

It has often struck young Pa Newc that the city of New Castle would doubtless want to erect such a fine

Arrest Near In Canton Murder, Officials Say

Expect To Arrest Woman Slayer Of Vernard Fearn Before Nightfall

Widow Of Slain Coal Operator Wants Mystery Cleared Up; New Castle Man Interviewed

(International News Service)

CANTON, O., Dec. 11.—The mystery girl who murdered Vernard E. Fearn, young coal operator, is hiding in Canton and will be arrested before nightfall.

That was the prediction today of Sheriff Edward Gibson as he and his sleuths carried on in the search for the girl who fired six shots into the young coal operator's body on the porch of his home five days ago.

"We've got the suspects down to one now," the sheriff said.

Gibson believes the girl is hiding in Canton.

The sheriff's statement came a few hours after the Stark county commissioners had offered a reward of $1,000 for information leading to the girl's arrest.

Two Teams Collide, Horses Are Injured, Suit For Damages

R. J. Cochran Alleges Alex Dudash Failed To Tie Team On Morris Street

In these days of automobile accidents and resultant suits for damages, it is somewhat unusual to find a suit, growing out of a runaway of horses, but such a case was filed at the prothonotary's office this morning.

R. J. Cochran, the plaintiff, alleges that two horses which he owned were badly injured by two horses belonging to Alex Dudash, which ran away on Morris street in South New Castle borough.

Cochran says that Dudash took the bridles off a team of horses and left them standing in Morris street, while he went into a near-by house. Cochran was driving a team down the right-hand side of the street and proceeding with due caution, when the horses which Dudash had left unbridled and untied, ran away, dashing into the horses driven by Cochran and knocking them down.

One of the Cochran horses was injured to the extent of $150, he claims and the other one to the extent of $50. Cochran lost considerable time as a result of the runaway, and had to pay veterinary bills. He asks $231.35 from Dudash.

Costing Less To Operate Furnace

Operates Without Coal Garbage Collection Head Declares

Operation of the incinerating plant, city of New Castle, has been costing materially less since the remodelling of the garbage plant, according to Howard Phillips, who stated that the furnace operates on its own fuel, created from garbage.

During the month of November the department of garbage of which Phillips is superintendent, collected and burned 372 tons of garbage. He stated that 200 barrels of waste foods had been hauled away by individuals.

ORDER POLICE TO SHOOT DOGS RUNNING AT LARGE IN CITY

Victim Of Gun Girl

Appearing suddenly on his porch a finely dressed girl of 22 shot and killed Vernard E. Fearn, below, 35-year-old coal operator of near Canton, O., as he answered her knock on the door. While Mrs. Fearn, above, tended her dying husband the girl boarded a Canton-bound bus and disappeared.

Police Chief Issues Orders At Noon Today

Says Action Taken As Result Of Reports About City

ALL DOGS MUST BE KEPT TIED UP

Police Begin Shooting At Once; Licensed Dogs Are Liable To Capture

Orders issued at noon today by Chief of Police C. C. Horner were to the effect that "all unlicensed dogs found running at large be killed by the members of the police force. Licensed dogs will be captured and held."

The order went into effect at once, and already two dogs have been killed.

This action, according to the chief, is taken as a protective measure for the benefit of all people of the city, as there have been numerous reports received during the morning from various parts of the city, to the effect that dogs have been seen running about frothing at the mouth, indicating a possibility of the existence of rabies.

There is no time to investigate as to the cause of this action on the part of the dogs reported, the chief said, and in order to avoid the possibility of people of the city being attacked and being infected with the disease, if such is the cause of the action of the dogs, the only thing to do is to get rid of the dogs.

The two dogs shot at the time of going to press were shot by Officer Charles Longstreth.

War Scare Among South American Nations Cooling

Believe Bolivia And Paraguay May Effect Settlement Of Differences

CHILE INTERESTS SELF IN ISSUE

Outside Agencies At Work To Try And Effect Amicable Agreement Of Troubles

(International News Service)

BUENOS AYRES, Dec. 11.—The Bolivian-Paraguayan war scare, which flamed up while President-elect Herbert Hoover is making his goodwill journey through South America, appeared to have been allayed today through peace efforts of outside agencies.

While there have been no further reports of fighting in the disputed territory abutting the Bolivian and Paraguayan frontiers, the Bolivian government is reported to be mobilizing troops.

A dispatch from Asuncion said that Paraguay had asked the league of nations to intervene and that the matter would be brought before the league council at Lugano today.

Chile Interested.

Chile has already offered to mediate. This offer attracted unusual attention from the fact that President-elect Hoover was on Chilean soil when the offer was made.

Official dispatches bearing upon the situation, and especially the belligerent attitude of Bolivia, have been exchanged by the Argentine, Chilean and Brazilian governments in the past 24 hours.

If these governments decide upon concerted action to prevent hostilities, Uruguay probably would be invited to participate.

A report that Paraguay was moving reinforcements to the region of Fort Vanguardia, which was occupied by Paraguayan troops last Thursday night, was denied in a dispatch from Asuncion. This fort was formerly held by a Bolivian garrison.

League to Act.

LUGANO, Switzerland, Dec. 11.—For the first time since its creation the league of nations today turned its attention towards the prevention of war upon an American continent.

Foreign Minister Briand of France, head of the French delegation to the league council meeting, was instructed to send telegrams to Bolivia and Paraguay pointing out to them their peaceful obligations under the league covenant.

British Nation Greatly Alarmed Over Condition

Physicians Concentrate Efforts On Move To Conserve King's Strength

PRINCE OF WALES IS RACING HOME

Expect Heir To Throne To Arrive At Palace Wednesday Morning

By HARRY R. FLORY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Despite temporary relief and flashes of optimism in bulletins posted at Buckingham Palace, the nation was genuinely alarmed this afternoon over the condition of its monarch, King George. Anxiety prevails in court circles. Beneath the surface there is gloom in official quarters.

There has been a spread of infection in the right lung. The royal patient's heart and general condition have been weakened by prolonged fever.

It was admitted unofficially that the physicians were concentrating their treatment to maintain the king's strength as far as possible until the Prince of Wales arrives tomorrow morning.

Possibility of Death

The possibility of the king's death is now being squarely faced by the nation. Reading between the lines of the medical bulletins, the people discern more than a fight to curb the illness. It is now a grim fight to prolong life.

A medical bulletin issued shortly after 11 o'clock said the king's fever remains high, but said there had been no further impairment of strength since the preceding bulletin of last night.

The king has now been sick more than three weeks and his constitution, which ormally is not robust, has suffered severely from the long strain.

Lord Dawson of Penn, one of the king's two personal physicians, made a call at York House, the private residence of the Prince of Wales in London this afternoon, but the significance of the call was not divulged.

His strength has become so greatly impaired that fears were expressed in unofficial quarters that he might not live beyond another 48 hours.

The gravest anxiety prevails throughout the nation.

The fact that the infection of the lung persists, after three weeks of illness, makes recovery practically impossible.

Jury Acquittal Recalls World War Heroism Of County Soldier

Ex-Service Men Rally To Defense Of Charles R. Cameron In Court Trial

Reveal Local Man One Cited For Extraordinary Heroism During War

Not often is an automobile driver, charged with driving while under the influence of liquor acquitted in a Lawrence county court, but such a verdict was brought in today in the case against Charles R. Cameron. Cameron is ordered to pay one half the costs and the prosecutor the other half.

The case was a rather unusual one in many ways. Known to comparatively few people, Cameron has one of the most distinguished war records compiled by an American soldier during the World War. So distinguished that Cummins Chase, the famous American artist was ordered by the government to paint Cameron's picture along with General Pershing and a number of others. The pictures of Cameron was carried as a full page in colors in Everybody's Magazine some time after the war.

Served With Roosevelt.

Of slight stature and an almost girlish complexion, Cameron looks anything but a hard infantryman who single handedly caputured a German machine gun nest and turned them over as prisoners.

He was a runner for Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and during one of the bitter engagements in the Argonne Forest was ordered to carry a message to a batallion officer. Another runner accompanied him so that in event he was killed the message might get through.

The two lads delivered the message

NEW CASTLE TO DEMAND THAT W. P. I. A. L. VINDICATE HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS HERE

First Step Is Determined Upon; To Ask Rehearing In Shaffer Case

Attitude Of Decisions Committee Will Determine Further Procedure

By "BUGS" WALTHER

New Castle High school is going to demand vindication at the hands of the decisions committee of the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League. A rehearing of the Glenn Shaffer case will be asked.

This was the result of a special meeting held by the athletic council of Senior High school in the administration building on East street Monday afternoon.

Decision Reached

A committee consisting of five prominent men of the city of New Castle was selected by the council members to approach the decisions committee on the matter of a rehearing of the Glenn Shaffer case. The local committee will go before the league moguls requesting a furtherance of the evidence in the Glenn Shaffer protest, believing that not knowing that Shaffer's eligibility would be questioned and feeling that such evidence as was presented does not fully cover the case, that in justice to New Castle all the facts should be heard.

The men who will carry the New Castle appeal to the decisions committee are: Chairman Frank L. Orth; Attorney Chairman Charles H. Young, president of the school board; Attorney William J. Moffatt, city school solicitor; Ralph H. Gardner, faculty manager of athletics and James K. Love, former president of the school board.

Action Unfair, Unjust

It was a very reserved group of men who gathered on Monday afternoon to seek for New Castle the undoing of what they contend has been unfair and unjust action in regard to New Castle High school. The opinion was about evenly divided on the continuance of New Castle High as

Injured Man Found Along P. & L. E. Tracks

While the P. & L. E. train crew was enroute from Ferrana to McKees Rocks late Monday afternoon they found a man lying unconscious with his head badly cut near the tracks on East Cherry street, Mahoningtown.

The crew notified the yard office of the P. & L. E. railroad in this city who called an ambulance and had the injured man removed to the Shenango Valley hospital.

The man had on him a P. & L. E. labor check and it was learned that his name was Stanley Kempeesti. He had sustained a severe laceration of the scalp and had not yet regained consciousness this morning, the hospital authorities stated.

The yardmaster is of the opinion that the injured man was not connected with the train crew nor had fallen from the train.

Canton Official Gets No Clues In New Castle Visit

According to newspaper stories under date lines of Canton, O., Prosecutor Henry Harter of Stark county was in New Castle on Monday interviewing a witness who is supposed to know something of Vernard Fearn of Canton, O.

The story says that Harter did not learn anything of importance in New Castle. While he may have been here, the authorities know nothing of his coming.

The murder of Fearn is another Canton murder that is as puzzling to the police as was that of Don Mellet. The New Castle witness was supposed to know something of the past life of the murdered man.

Socks I have plenty, of silk and wool, neckties of hues that the spectrum lacks, handkerchiefs, garters and many shirts, felt hats of browns and of grays and of blacks. Fountain pens, yes, and of paper a plenty, cigarette lighters and cases to match, fancy cigars and of cigarettes also, summing them all up it makes quite a batch. Overcoats, topcoats, and raincoats I'm fitted, heavy shoes, dressy shoes, suits three or four, don't send me any new wearing apparel, haven't got room to accommodate more. What can you send, well it isn't so difficult, wont tax your mind, you wont have to think hard, just spend a dime and a two cent stamp with it, all that I want is a small Christmas card. Don't need a thing, so don't bother to send it, cards, mean a sight more of Christmas to me, presents mean little, but cards, well that's different, weather, just splendid, its warm, forty-three.

Young Flier Dies In Fall

Marvin Van Voorhis Is Killed At Curtis Field, N. Y.

Word was received here today by Alderman and Mrs. O. H. P. Green of Richelieu avenue of the death of Marvin Van Voorhis, aged 21, a student flyer at Curtiss field, N. Y. He was the brother of Noble Van Voorhis of Beaver, Pa., son-in-law of Alderman and Mrs. Green. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Van Voorhis of Canton, O.

He crashed in his second flight alone on Monday and was burned to death in the wreckage of his plane. He had been up about 20 minutes and was circling over an open space near the Long Island village known as Island Creek, which is often used for practice landings. He was about 150 feet up when Thomas Koster, a farmer and the only witness, saw the plane turn over and start down under full power.

The plane caught on fire as it struck and although the flyer was thrown partly clear, he was pinned beneath part of the plane and the flames enwrapped him. The place the plane landed was not accessible from the road and nothing could be done in time to save him.

Noble Van Voorhis, his brother, and his wife are at present in Los Angeles, Cal., and efforts are now being made to locate him.

Alleged Drunken Driver On Trial

Earl P. Kanengeiser was placed on trial before Judge Chambers this morning on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. Several witnesses testified that Kanengeiser was apparently under the influence of liquor, when he was brought into the mayor's office and examined by Dr. Campbell. He was unable to come through the usual tests given in such cases, and is alleged to have said that he had his usual amount of liquor that day. Kanengeiser denies that he was intoxicated and is making a hard fight.

and returning to Roosevelt's P. C. decided to take a short cut through a wheat field. As they came out of the wheat field the lines had shifted and they ran into a German machine gun nest. The Germans opened fire, killing Cameron's companion. Cameron whipped out his automotic and taking aim, killed one of the Germans and wounded another. This was all the ammunition he had with him and deciding to take a "Yankee chance" he called to them to surrender or he would shoot them all.

"Kamerad."

Frightened by his deadly aim the Germans threw up their hands and Cameron weighing about 115 pounds, marched them into the headquarters with an empty revolver as his weapon. For his unusual bravery he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. Later he was badly wounded and still carries a piece of shell in his lung which necessitates his going into the hospital at intervals to have his lungs scraped.

The charge of drunken driving was a "border-line" case. He was driving towards home on October 26 when he met two friends of his who were drunk. Feeling that they might get into trouble he insisted that they get into his car. They got in but were so persistent that they would not throw away the little liquor left in their bottle that Cameron drank it to keep peace he said.

A little later two cars were racing up Moravia street and as one tried to pass the other Cameron pulled over and scraped a car parked at the curb. In the bump he swallowed a chew of tobacco he had in his mouth and the tobacco made him sick he declared. He was arrested and held for court.

His ex-service friends rallied to his defense. Attorney W. Walter Braham, former commander of the American Legion defended him, the first time that Braham ever defended a case of drunken driving. Another former commander, Dr. T. Wilbur McCullough testified as to Cameron's reputation as did the present commander Ivor V. Davis also a former commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. William Lewis and James A. Bell another overseas man.

Old Job's case might have been worse. Suppose there had been a lot of little jobs to divide among his political supporters.

hospital as that given by the late David Jameson, and still fail to surround it with the proper setting. It seems as if more ground could be purchased, perhaps, and shrubbery and all that sort of thing which go to enhance any property or building placed around it. The hospital surroundings would be a credit to New Castle, and as the Jameson Memorial hospital is situated on one of the main routes of travel here no doubt the hospital and surroundings would become the center of talk of hundreds of tourists, besides others. How about it?

In the Harlansburg notes Pa Newc observes that somebody is moving a sawmill to woods in the vicinity of Rock Springs. Pa Newc wonders if some person is planning to cut down some of the beautiful woodland in that area. Several fine pieces of woodland in the vicinity of Harlansburg have been cut down in the past year or two, and it is a shame if the section around Rock Springs is to be given the same treatment. Can nothing be done about this?

Farmers in the county are having a busy week of it. A pruning meeting yesterday, dairy and legume meetings for three more days and then two poultry meetings on Friday. They are taking time out on Saturday for a breath of air and to get the family groceries. The meetings are all sponsored by Harold McCulloch, county agent.

Lawrence county grangers are whooping it up down at the Williamsport convention this week. Lawrence county, though one of the smallest, has a large percentage of tilled turf and the farmers are active in agricultural circles. William McCulloch Big Beaver farmer and also musical director at Mount Jackson in the high school, is leading all of the music at the convention.

The Christmas card racket has ceased. At the time when folks used to think about buying their cards, now they have all been purchased and the majority of people have them ready to send.

Still harping on the Christmas card racket, Pa Newc knows one person who has received a card already. The card was mailed from a distance of about 100 miles away. Apparently there was one party who believed in avoiding the postal rush and avoiding it right. Long distance packages, however, have begun to hum through the mails. One look at post office trucks shows the added tonnage.

Pa Newc hopped into the postoffice yesterday about two o'clock and he had difficulties getting himself jammed through the crowds. The place had more people in it than it usually has in several days during the ant-Christmas season.

The road from Sharon over to Mercer will be open officially it is thought within the next few days. The road is now open to light traffic through the kindness of the contractors. It will be a matter of but a short time until the road will be okay, says the local highway head.

State highways have placed all of the snow fences apparently, but thus far they have not been badly needed. Ashes were needed on hills but once this year and that time a heavy snow covered the ground for several days before Thanksgiving day.

Out on Atlantic avenue, the new highway fence has been completed. The highway department is evidently taking precautions against sliding cars from crashing through the old fence down over the cliff. All over the county, weak spots in road side cables are being repaired and rotted posts are being replaced.

The county league basketball season will soon be in our midst. Schools whether they get beat or not should send in a report of the game immediately, if it is played on their home floor. In too many cases when a home team gets defeated they forget to report the game and thus another perfectly good argument is started.

For the past few days small pieces of ice have been floating down the Neshannock creek, but this morning probably for the first time this season the stream was entirely covered with ice where it flows through the East Washington street bridge. Which might be interpreted as another sign of winter.

Young Gillis Falls, the boy who offered to give the elephants bed and board while they were in New Castle appeared at The Cathedral last night ready to take the beasts home with him. "I'll get the elephants" he said, "for the man said I could have them tonight." But Gillis did not get the pachyderms. At the end of the show they were taken to their home on Shenango street.

East Washington street, of evenings, is beginning to take on more than the usual aspect of Christmas cheer. Many of the stores have red and green lights on their fronts. Last year when the lighting of trees and buildings was sponsored by the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, many merchants and home owners complied with the requests but this year it seems that New Castle will have even a more cheery Christmas than that of 1927.

The difficulties of becoming a flying cadet at one of the army air schools was recently explained to Pa Newc by Captain Melvin L. Craig. Only a small percentage of the applicants are finally graduated and given their pilots licenses. However, the captain says ,applicants can get valuable information pertaining to the courses by applying to the Adjutant General, United States Army, Washington, D. C.

Says His Auto Was Hit By Truck As It Stood On Road

O. H. List Files Suit For $361 Damages Against Eluteria Lattavo

O. H. List has filed a suit at the prothonotary's office against Eluteria Lattavo to collect $361 damages to an automobile. List claims that he was driving east on the Harlansburg road when he saw a coal truck belonging to Lattavo coming down the hill near the Lehigh cement plant at a high and dangerous rate of speed. When near the drive leading into the cement plant List, becoming alarmed, says that he drove clear off the concrete and stopped his car. Notwithstanding the truck struck his car and did considerable damage. It is claimed that the brakes on the truck were not good and that the driver was operating it in a reckless manner.

interviewed an old friend of Fearn's in the hope that he might throw some light on the murdered man's past. Harter said he learned nothing of importance.

Last night four girls who knew Fearn slightly were quizzed for new leads. Gibson said they contributed nothing to the investigation.

Again yesterday the murdered man's widow and 9-year-old child repeated the story of the killing for the authorities. Mrs. Fearn's story was unchanged: a well dressed brunette had knocked on the front door at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, asked Mrs. Fearn for her husband, and when Fearn arrived, coolly drilled him with a .32 automatic.

Mrs. Fearn said, "I want to see this mystery cleared up, even though it may mean unhappiness for me and my little girl."

Mr. Bloomer's death was due to plural pneumonia which he contracted about a week ago. His death is particularly sad as his wife, Laura E. Bloomer, passed away less than two weeks ago.

He was born in England, December 2, 1853. He came to this country many years ago and had been a resident of New Castle for thirty-seven years. He was a veteran employe of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Co. of this city and was pensioned by the company when he retired some time ago.

TIME FOR NEW CLOTHES

WITH the official vote in Pennsylvania tabulated by George D. Thorn, Chief of the Elections Bureau, some salient facts stand out clearly against the sky line of retrospection. Chief among these it would appear is the vital need for a new constitution for the state of Pennsylvania.

Among those who regard all constitutions as sacro-sanct the proposal for a new constitution may be looked upon with askance. It need not be. The constitution under which we are now working, that of 1873 is the fourth constitution which the state has had.

In 1776 a constitution, inspired by a resolution of the Continental Congress, was drawn. It was a sketchy sort of thing and was superceded by the Constitution of 1790. This constitution lasted until 1838 when a new one was drafted. Again in 1873 the need for a new constitution was seen and a new document was drawn. This is the constitution under which Pennsylvania is now governed.

Thirty-four times the present constitution has been amended. Thirty-four times have the people of the state said that there were matters of importance not included in the constitution, and to this thirty-four have been added four more passed on November 6, 1928, making a total of thirty-eight amendments to the state constitution.

As a result the state constitution now resembles a governmental crazy quilt, a patch work of amendments that leads to doubt in the application of laws.

The recent election is the last straw, the one gesture that cries out the need of a new constitution. Fourteen amendments were presented to the people, some of them good, some of them bad. But regardless of the merit or demerit of an amendment, no group of over 3,000,000 voters can go into a polling booth, vote for national, state and local officers and pass upon fourteen amendments intelligently. It is too much to ask and the expected resulted.

Out of over 3,000,000 votes cast, only about 1,000,000 were cast for or against the amendments. In other words, one-third of the voters decided whether or not the constitutional Ship of State, leaking from many seams, was to be plugged fourteen times. The four amendments passed are good ones, but among the other ten there are some that should have been passed. Only the intervention of the governor and the state treasurer killed off some of the amendments that would have saddled the state with an enormous debt.

There are some duties, now restricted as to the general assembly, which should be given to that body without a constitutional amendment. There is legislation which could and should be passed by that body, but because of the constitution, an amendment must be passed before the general assembly can pass upon it.

The United States Constitution, adopted March 4, 1789, has been amended but 19 times. Our own state constitution, the fourth of its kind, adopted in 1873, has been amended 38 times and each year sees need for more amendments.

The answer to it is a constitutional convention, one that will draw a new constitution for the state and lead us out of a maze of doubt.

The old suit is short in the sleeves and worn in the elbows. Its high time for some new clothes.

THE MOVIES SERVE

WE HAVE a story from Los Angeles which has all of the absorbing elements of a plot from a sensational novel. Mrs. John Luhman was attending the movies in that town and was engrossed in the flashes from the current news reel. One section of it showed a party from the Colorado University inspecting a pioneer mining town. Miners came and went. Suddenly one figure appeared on the screen which made her gasp. It was a perfect picture of her father for whom she had been searching for fifteen years. It lasted only fifteen seconds, but in that brief time she realized that the expected had come at last.

It required the aid of the newspapers to complete the job. They featured the story and in a short time the missing man was located in a boom town in Colorado. Who says there is no romance in every-day life? The little incident suggests endless possibilities for the novelist. It also proves that the movies have uses which were undreamed of when they were first invented. We have no doubt that similar instances might be discovered in other parts of the country. Along the same line the radio has proved its value time and again. Missing persons have been paged frequently, and in many cases have been found by a simple announcement, coupled with a description of the wandering one.

We are truly living in a wonderful age. Flying machines have brought remote sections closer together; the radio brings the world into the living room of the humblest and moving pictures give us entertainment, instruction and useful information.

What Made It Topple.

Many Pow-Wow Doctors.

Two Slogans.

The Sloppy Season.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

Wall street wants to know what made the top heavy stock market topple over just when it did. Two things fixed the date of what was soon to happen. The violent drop in Canadian Marconi made geese realize that stocks go both ways, faster down than up. And call money at 12 per cent was the finishing touch. Usury cannot keep fools from gambling, but it can ruin them neatly, at a convenient time.

Many believed that 12 per cent money, caused by the speculation craze, meant 12 per cent for a whole year, not realizing that over a few days or weeks such an interest rate makes little difference. Some of the strong men will step in, collect bargains at the right time, and be praised for "preventing a panic."

In Pennsylvania "Pow-Wow" doctors" vestigial remainder of witchcraft days, prey on the superstitious. They cure warts by reciting verses from the Bible, or rubbing a piece of fat on the warts and burying the fat in the ground. They treat cancer and diseases by muttering meaningless words.

The law can stop this gradually, for it says no doctor must talk or practice nonsense unless he has a regular license. The law cannot reach, unfortunately, the great army of "pow-wow doctors" in the field of politics and statesmanship. They will go on "pow-wowing" to the end of time—get paid for it.

The New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, having shaken out the widows, orphans and bona fide investors that owned the road once, is now making money and displaying efficiency.

It has invented a slogan for employes that do the real work. This is how it goes: "Employes will please be long on service and short on alibis." Employes are also told that every worker should be a salesman, trying to build up the road's business.

All employes should do their best, half-hearted work helps no man. But the railroad might reply to that slogan with another: "Officers of the road will please be long on high wages and short on excuses for low pay." When railroads are increasing their business, with increased rates, they should remember their workers and "do unto others, etc."

Christmas is near and the sloppy sentimental season is here. Uncle Sam loves everybody, wants to get into a league of nations, a world court, a peace pact, or something or other. Anything to snuggle up and admit that we are lonely.

We should study Mussolini. He lives in Europe and knows the people. He also wants peace, but not at any price. In fact, he says: "We are very cautious about granting our friendship to anyone who has not given us necessary guarantees in exchange."

This country is like a lost poodle jumping into anybody's lap. What sort of "guarantees" has Europe given us? It calls our country "Uncle Shylock" because we ask payment of part of ten billions lent in war. And it arranges secret naval agreements, leaving us out. At what exact moment, since 1776, did this country become unable to look after itself?

Canada, almost as big as Europe, bigger than the United States on this continent, concentrates attention on the common man. Farmers are looked after. There is "adult education" for men anxious to make up for lost time. And the Canadian wheat pool is a great and successful marketing plan.

Some of Canada's ideas would be called paternalism, even half way Bolshevism, here. This country is so busy looking after the exceptional man, the big fellows at the top, that little attention is left over for the common man. But government will get around to him eventually—if he wakes up and insists on it.

Postmaster General New's report shows a postoffice deficit of $33,363,-148. The average American spent for postage $5.11, total receipts $693,633,-921. The important news is postoffice airplane development, for which Postmaster General New deserves public thanks. The new 5-cent rate on air letters has increased the service enormously. The so-called "postoffice loss" means nothing. Whether the people pay that money to the postoffice for stamps or pay it in taxes makes no difference.

Chicago Chamber of Commerce has devoted three days to the question of aircraft manufacture, while Chicago offered an admirable airship exposi-

SIGNS

When the children take their spinach
without making any fuss,
And they wash their hands for dinner
without any word from us,
When they go to bed when told to without running down again
On some vain pretext or other—oh,
it's very certain then
We are speeding through December
and the shopping days are here
And that glorious day of childhood—
Christmas Eve, is drawing near!

When they drop their little curtsies in the way we wish they would,
When their "thank you's" and their "pleases" show they're trying to be good,
And they sit upright at table and they clearly say their prayers
Without mumbling and forgetting, and they place their clothes on chairs,
Then there isn't any doubting it's the last month of the year,
And that glorious day of childhood—
Christmas Eve, is drawing near!

When the mothers and the fathers give a chuckle soft and low,
And frequently consider how those tots more lovelier grow
And forget their little failings to sit boasting of their charms,
Coming home these winter evenings with strange bundles in their arms,
When the frownings of the fathers and the mothers disappear,
There can be no doubt about it—
Christmas Eve is drawing near!

Britten Is Roundly Denounced But Rallies Some Defenders

Vigorous Language Used In Criticisms Of House Naval Committee Chairman's Action In Addressing The British Premier

"Usurpation," "impertinence" and "unethical" are some of the disapproving terms showered by a large section of the American press upon the action of Representative Britten of Illinois, chairman of the House naval committee, in suggesting to the British premier that committees of Congress and Parliament confer on the naval armament problem. There is quite general agreement on the point that the proceeding was irregular, to say the least, and many critics are as severe as the MILWAUKEE JOURNAL, which thinks "Mr. Britten should be called before the bar of the House and given a good stiff censure."

Yet there are others who evidently feel that, regular or irregular, the Illinois member's move was worth while. Considering the spirit in which the message was sent, the NEW YORK WORLD (Ind.) finds that it represents the idea of the average American that "something ought really to be done about naval limitation," while the HARTFORD TIMES (Ind. Dem.) adds that "Mr. Britten may have done something to arouse the public so that Secretary Kellogg and President Coolidge and the British leaders will discover that the fact that they alone have the right to conduct negotiations does not necessarily mean that no negotiations are to be conducted."

"The pother which is being made over the affair, as if Mr. Britten's interference were fraught with disaster to national policies, is wholly unnecessary," in the opinion of the PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN (Ind. Rep.) The BALTIMORE SUN (Ind. Dem.) is convinced that "many things that have happened recently show that the people in several countries are getting tired of the petty squabbling of experts and they would welcome consideration of peace and disarmament by men better capable of understanding and expressing the common mind." The WORCESTER EVENING GAZETTE (Ind.) remarks, too: "The experts have been unable to agree. It would be desirable to know if civilians could do a better job."

Approval of the idea of a conference which "might be held as a committee meeting of the Interparliamentary Union, of which Mr Britten is Vice President- is given by the ASHEVILLE TIMES (Ind. Dem.). The TOPEKA DAILY CAPITAL (Rep.) thinks that at least "Everybody must agree that it would be terrible if world peace should actually be established and then be found by the lawyers to be unconstitutional."

"It would lead to chaos," declares the CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR (Rep.), if parliamentary committees could thus formally discuss international relations. * * * Yet Chairman Britten's proposal represents a popular yearning. * * * The diplomats of the two countries but echo the barks of the sea-dogs. * * * Chairman Britten is thinking of the land-lubbers who pay the bills and who love peace more than they love armament."

Conceding that "statesmen on either side of the Atlantic happily realize the profound necessity of reaching an agreement over Anglo-American naval armaments," the WASHINGTON STAR (Ind.), nevertheless, states the conclusion: "It is wholly inconceivable that in connection with so delicate a proposition, extra-official intervention from any quarter, however well-intentioned, can be helpful. Indeed, there is ample evidence to justify the fear that it can be harmful."

A law of the United States covering certain forms of private interference with matters of diplomacy is mentioned by a number of those who condemn Mr. Britten. The DETROIT NEWS (Ind.) offers the judgment on that point: "It probably cannot be construed that Representative Britter is 'attempting to defeat the measures of the Government of the United States' by communicating with a foreign government, for a person who did that would come pretty close to subjecting himself to a fine of $5,000 and three years' imprisonment under Section 5 of the Criminal Code." The paper, however, describes his act as "usurpation of a power given by law to the President of the United States."

"Shirt-sleeve diplomacy and dollar diplomacy must now give way to correspondence-school diplomacy," observes the BINGHAMTON PRESS (Ind. Rep.), with the further comment: "Mr. Baldwin passed a very warm and unexpected buck to Secretary Kellogg when he tried to answer Britten through the American State Department. Of course that was the only proper diplomatic way to answer but it made the whole unofficial thing horribly official."

"Apparently there is need every few years of instructing certain members of Congress in the elementary distinctions between domestic and foreign affairs made by the Constitution," suggests the NEW YORK TIMES (Ind.) while the SPRINGFIELD REPUBLICAN (Ind.) states that the message "violates precedent and perhaps violates law," and the ATLANTA CONSTITUTION (Dem.) expresses the view that "he acted in a most unusual and certainly in a most unethical manner," and holds that "the institutions of our government cease when we ignore the authorized channels of diplomacy."

"He might have taken a lesson from the disapproval met with by Senator Borah when he sought information as chairman of the Senate foreign affairs committee from Mexico," says the RENO EVENING GAZETTE (Ind. Rep.). The LOUISVILLE COURIER - JOURNAL (Ind.) is among those who observe "a patent invasion of the province of the Executive branch of the government" and "usurpation of the powers of the State Department."

"The House has virtually nothing to do with the international affairs except indirectly through appropriations," remarks the PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE (Rep.), and the NORFOLK LEDGER - DISPATCH (Ind. Dem.) directs attention to the lack of authority on the part of the British Parliament, "without the consent of the Premier himself or through the admiralty members of the Cabinet sitting on the floor of Parliament."

"Mr. Britten either made a bid for notoriety which would justify the House removing him as chairman of that committee or he is singularly lacking in a comprehension of our governmental system and the reasons for it," asserts the KANSAS CITY JOURNAL-POST (Ind. Rep.) and the DAYTON DAILY NEWS (Ind. Dem.) assails Mr. Britten's "plan to short-circuit the regular channels of diplomacy." The CHARLESTON EVENING POST (Ind. Dem.) concludes that "the incident has become comical and it is not quite certain as to who is the butt of the joke."

PARACHUTING

It begins to look as though flying would come to be the safest of all forms of travel. The earth is getting pretty thickly spread with one thing and another and it takes a lot of dodging to beat the incessant game. Comes now the invention of the Goliath of parachutes, 84 feet in diameter and capable of holding a whole airplane and some passengers aloft. Let something go wrong with the airplane of the near future and all the passengers can climb into the parachute and slip down to the nearest convenient pasture.

B. E. Fulton established the flying field near Akron where the workshops of the Goodyear-Zeppelin Corporation will be located. His dream of great dirigibles manufactured in this country is coming true. An interesting thing to know about Fulton is that he quit his job some years ago to make his first flight. He believed in the future of lighter-than-air craft. He couldn't get the time off to experiment, so he gave up a regular place. Takes nerve to do that. A man must be sure he is right. Our lack of nerve to do that very thing, however, may make all the difference between success and failure.

TO GUIDE AVIATORS

An aerial beacon light will be placed on the tallest building in the Middle Northwest. The new light, of 2,000,-000 candlepower, is expected to be in operation January 1.

Authorization of the new light was recently granted by Captain F. C. Hingsburg, Chief Engineer, to the W. B. Foshay Company, Minneapolis, on whose 32-story building the light will be placed.

The new light will be about 450 feet above ground, and 1,287 feet above sea level, revolving at the rate of two revolutions a minute. It will carry a two-foot parabolic mirror; its lamp will be at 1,000 watt T-20 type, burning from sunset to sunrise.

Establishment of the Foshay aerial beacon marks another step in the furtherance of air navigation facilities. In connection with its establishment it was pointed out by Captain Hingsburg that the Air Commerce Regulations provide for the certification of privately established aeronautical lights that serve as aids on established civil airways, mark landing fields for airplanes or serve as landmarks leading to a safe, lighted landing field.

The Standard Oil Company of California has placed a larger beacon than this on Mount San Miguel in San Diego County, located about five miles from the Mexican Border. The light is up in the air 2000 feet and is so strong that its revolving rays may be seen from highways one hundred miles away and by aviators more than double that distance.

International Bazaar Conducted By Girl Reserves In Y.W.C.A.

Large Crowd Attends International Bazaar In Y. W. C. A. Monday Night

An International bazaar was an interesting and unusual event Monday evening in the social room of the Y. W. C. A.

The room was decorated with Japanese parasols and Japanese lanterns. In addition to the various booths there was Chinese tea room occupying a part of the room. In this tea room were round tables of Chinese red on which were green tapers, where refreshments could be had.

The various booths with their displays were very interesting. There was a Japanese booth with all Japanese articles. Then a Russian booth, with articles of brass on sale. These two booths were decorated in the national colors of each country. A novelty both had handicraft articles for sale. The articles at this both had been made by the Senior Girl Reserves and were modern art vases, painted salt and pepper shakers, novelty bowls and etc., there was also a candy booth.

The bazaar was conducted by the Senior High school Girl Reserves. Proceeds received will be used to send delegates to the Kiski Girl Reserve conference next summer.

Miss Janet Brenneman was geheral chairman in charge of the event.

Chinese tea room was in charge of Miss Martha Beadel.

Japanese booth, Miss Mildred Sneckenberger was in charge and was dressed in a Japanese costume.

Russian booth, Miss Eleanor McGill and Miss Geneva Hazen, dressed as Russian peasants were in charge.

Novelty booth, Miss Dorothy Long and Miss Janel Brenneman were in charge.

Candy booth in charge of Miss Catherine Bartley.

The event was very successful.

NEW CASTLE WILL DEMAND VINDICATION

members of the august association known as the W. P. I. A. L.

Principal Frank L. Orth, questioned closely as to just what his one-year suspension really meant, brought out that the suspending of New Castle High from the league merely holds good until the close of the present school year. Therefore, on or about July 1, 1929, New Castle High will have a clean slate in the league. Whether or not New Castle High will desire to remain in the W. P. I. A. L. is another question entirely and one that may be thoroughly threashed out in later meetings.

Believe Injustice Done

The issue that is causing the rift right now is the manner in which New Castle was ostracised and given severe punishment for what they honestly believe was an injustice.

For New Castle to allow the Shaffer ruling of the Decisions Committee to stand as acted upon Saturday at Pittsburgh, would be casting a "black-eye" on the athletic efficiency of New Castle schools. The New Castle school authorities accepted Glenn Shaffer into their jurisdiction with good faith. There was no good reason why Shaffer who is now residing with Ralph Shaffer at his home on East Washington street should not have been admitted to the public schools of this city.

"Enrolled by proper procedure in senior high school under my jurisdiction, I have accorded the boy all rights of a high school student, and have sanctioned his athletic activity in our midst," said Frank L. Orth. Therefore Orth's integrity was questioned when the decisions committee without much ado accepted the verbal protest of Beaver Falls, and declared in a very short secret session that Glenn Shaffer was a non-resident of New Castle and as such could not legally participate in athletics.

The two affidavits signed by Ralph Shaffer and A. A. Shaffer the brother and father of the boy in question, seemed to carry little weight with the decisions committee. The only basis for the W. P. I. A. L. action is that A. A. Shaffer has admitted under oath that he maintained a voting residence at New Wilmington and that he is a property owner there.

To Act Speedily

The committee appointed will act speedily in the matter. The first person to be approached will be H. B. Horner, president of the W. P. I. A. L. and chairman of the decisions committee.

Should the committee refuse to grant New Castle's request for a rehearing of the protest, then just what action will be taken is not definitely known. In a technical sense, the by-laws the committee may have been justified in ruling the way they did on Shaffer, in view of what evidence was presented. New Castle will seek to prove by additional facts that Shaffer is a resident of this city.

Cancel Floor Games

In regard to the basketball status of New Castle High in the approaching season, the Athletic Council authorized Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner to cancel all Section III basketball games. This action was taken to relieve the high schools of Section III, of any embarrassment of playing a team that had been suspended by the league. The Section III teams thus effected by this ruling are: Beaver Falls, New Brighton, Mars, Butler, Zelienople, Evans City and Ellwood City.

Gardner will now proceed with the scheduling of an independent program for the 1928-29 New Castle High School basketball team.

Relations Strained

That athletic relations between New Castle and Beaver Falls have reached the straining point was clearly defined at the Athletic Council session. Due to the very unsportsmanlike ethics used by the Beaver Falls High officials and fans at various times, it was deemed advisable to sever all athletic relations in football and basketball. However, nothing definite was undertaken by the council in this matter, but it is understood that the issue is gaining momentum here.

The following are members of the Athletic Council of senior high: Dr. C. C. Green, city superintendent of schools; Frank L. Orth, principal of senior high school, and who acted as chairman of the special session yesterday; Ralph H. Gardner, faculty manager of athletics; A. C. Hyde, member of the school board; E. C. Wilson, Alumni representative; Philip H. Bridenbaugh, coach at senior high; Edward Smith, student manager at senior high; and James Crill, president of the Student Council of senior high. Smith and Crill were absent from the meeting yesterday.

ever. Two Toronto university teachers have been investigating the sleep habits of children. Few children pass into the land of nod to the soothing croon of a lullaby. And the cradle rocking age is past. Science has no regrets but the memories of old songs when the dark came down will linger.

We learn from these experienced sleep investigators that "sleeping in the daytime has no effect on the night sleep of infants, but too much daytime sleep interferes with the night rest of older children. Between the third and fourth year of life the child should not be permitted to sleep longer than about one and a half hours in the daytime. More than this not only interferes with night rest, but also deprives the child of fresh air and play activity that he needs."

SENTIMENT

There seems in this modern age to be a pretty general tendency to attach less importance to sentimental appeal and more to importance to a perfectly scientific or efficient approach. And to a considerable extent this is as it should be. But let's not lose all our perspective. Let's not get out of balance. The whole man is the normal man. He is a creature of sentiment and emotion as well as a creature of mind and muscle. Denying sentiment, denying tender emotions, is denying a part of ourselves. What we feel is important, as well as what we think.

Stubborn Cough Quickly Ended by Famous Recipe

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn, lingering cough. It takes but a moment to prepare and costs little, but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that usually follow the "flu."

From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. Thus you make a full pint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and tastes so good that even children like it.

Not only does this simple mixture soothe and heal the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes, thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of distressing coughs, chest colds, and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Lions Select New Officers

E. D. Marvin Named As President At Noon Hour Session

OTHER OFFICERS ARE ALSO ELECTED

Ezra D. Marvin, prominent business man of this city, was today chosen as president of the New Castle Lion's club when the members convened at noon to select the official club roster for 1929. Marvin succeeds Dr. J. L. Reed to this position. In the balloting, A. H. Bartlett was named first vice president of the club.

Mr. Marvin, who is a member of the Marvin Electric company, has been a director of the Lion's organization for more than a year. His membership in the club goes back almost two years, and his qualifications for holding the position as King Lion in the club are numerous.

Other club officials selected for next year are as follows:

Second vice president—John Ellison.

Third vice president—Dr. T. M. Shaffer.

Tail twister—A. J. Rees.

Lion tamer—Robert Taylor.

Sky pilot—Rev. D. C. Schnebly.

At the same time, the club chose three new directors for the ensuing year, M. V. Hyde, Earl Ramsey and Anthony Marino were elected to this position.

No secretary was elected owing to the fact that this is an appointive position. Thomas I. Elliott has served in that capacity during the past year.

Installation for the new officials will occur at a meeting of the club in the near future, but as yet the exact date is unknown. The new officials will take over the official reigns of the club at that time.

by the royal physicians at 11:15 a. m. today.

The bulletin indicated that His Majesty had had a fair night and was maintaining his strength, although his temperature remained high. The text of the bulletin follows:

"His Majesty had several hours of sleep during the night. His temperature remains high, but there is no further impairment of his strength."

The bulletin was signed by Sir Stanley Hewett and Lord Dawson of Penn.

Medical authorities were fearful that the king's weakened condition would prevent him from combatting the new incursion of the infection.

Meanwhile the Prince of Wales is rushing to his father's bedside. He is now crossing Switzerland and a double-engined special train which shows promise of breaking all continental speed records.

The prince's special left Chinasso on the Swiss-Italian border at 5:10 o'clock this morning. The train may reach the French coast city of Boulogne at about seven o'clock tonight. At Boulogne the prince will board the destroyer Torch for the short channel crossing, arriving here about midnight.

It was reliably reported at 5:45 this afternoon that the king had been unconscious since morning.

Palace officials refused to confirm or deny the report.

Owing to the gravity of the king's condition it is understood the Prince of Wales will hasten to London from Boulogne, France, tonight. He had originally planned to spend the night at Boulogne. He is due here at 10:30 p. m., which is 5:30 p. m. eastern standard time.

Premier Stanley Baldwin left the House of Commons during the late afternoon debate to hasten to Dover to meet the Prince of Wales tonight.

The fact that the prince was advised to hasten to London tonight instead of carrying out his original plan to cross the channel tomorrow morning was accepted as confirmation that the king's condition is extremely grave.

Several police precautions will be taken to prevent the crowd from entering Victoria station when he arrives tonight. The prince sent a message insisting there be no demonstration.

Early Mailing Gets Under Way

Postmaster Reports Big Spurt In Business Has Started This Week

Postmaster Edwin W. Crawford announced this morning that the volume of Christmas gift mailing took a sudden increase yesterday, predicting what is hoped by officials will be an "early mailing" year.

Mr. Crawford stated that he again wants it emphasized on the public mind that officials of the post office request that all Christmas packages be mailed now, to avoid the customary Christmas rush which always precedes the holiday.

All windows of the New Castle post office will be closed on Christmas day, it is said. Only mail bearing special delivery or perishable stamp will be worked, owing to the fact that the department has issued an order which permits all postal employes, with the exception of all necessary clerks, to spend the Christmas holiday with their families.

Business will close at midnight on Monday, December 24, and will not be resumed until the morning of December 26.

Rotarians Attend Buckwheat Dinner In College Town

Between 200 and 300 Rotarians from Lawrence and Mercer counties gathered at the United Presbyterian church in New Wilmington Monday evening to enjoy a buckwheat and sausage supper, sponsored by the Rotary club of the college town. More than 35 members of the New Castle club attended.

Following the delicious supper came a short and snappy program of speeches and music. H. T. Getty, president of the New Wilmington Rotary, presided as toastmaster during the evening, calling upon numerous Rotarians for brief remarks. Leonard Skegs of Youngstown, a former vice president of Rotary International, was present and made a short address.

Vocal music furnished by a triple quartet from Youngstown, and others who reside in New Wilmington. Their selections were splendid.

William McLaughry, a member of the New Wilmington club, deserves considerable praise for his service as generalissimo of the evening. He it was who arranged the entertaining Rotary get-together.

Cities represented by the 250 or more Rotarians in attendance, aside from New Castle, were Greenville, Sharon, Grove City, Mercer and Ellwood City. Others came from farther distances.

tion, including new models. The El Paso, Tex., Chamber of Commerce sent a flying machine to Mexico to congratulate the new president on his inauguration, expressing friendship and a desire to do business.

Before long, airplanes will be as important to travel and commerce as railroads are now and as stage coaches once were. Chambers of Commerce that are wise will interest themselves in aviation, in which, by the way, the Chamber of Commerce of Seattle specializes more intensely than any other chamber in the country.

American owners of "concessions in Colombia" are indignant because native labor, rebelling, destroys property and menaces life. Native labor should not do that, but it has a grievance. Colombian law says "regular employes must be insured against accident by their employers." American concessionaires employ much transient labor and say, "We can't afford to insure a man that works only a week or two." Native labor says quite naturally, "We can't afford to have a hand cut off without compensation on a short job."

California could solve that problem. In California you insure all your workers, paying insurance based on the amount of your payroll at the end of a year. Thus transient employes cost no more for insurance than regular employes.

Gentlemen with stores of liquor put away in cellars arrange trap guns so that burglars will get bullets in place of whisky. That's an old idea. The new idea comes from Houston, Tex. A prohibition agent descending into the secret cave of a distiller entered a gas trap and died. His cries of warning saved the lives of three companions who hastily retired. Bootlegging has become a science, a marvelous university for the development of criminals.

MAN AND WIFE ARE WELL AGAIN PRAISE KONJOLA

MR. AND MRS. E. M. GREEN

Another Happy Case Of A Home Made Happy By Modern Medicine—All Treatments Had Failed.

Homes without number, wherever Konjola, the new medicine, is known, have been made scenes of happiness and health instead of pain and suffering. In cases by the hundreds man and wife, one profiting by the experience of the other, have found in Konjola the health they sought so long in vain.

Day by day this modern compound of 32 ingredients adds to its fame by its victories over disease that has baffled all other medicines and treatments. Day by day happy men and women write to tell the glad news of what Konjola has done for them. On such success is the fame of Konjola founded. This is not a medicine planned to give mere temporary relief, but to restore new and abundant health. Picture, if you can the happiness that reigns now in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Green, R. F. D. No. 3, Volant, near New Castle, since both have been freed from the shackles of suffering. Writing of their splendid experience with this master medicine, Mr. Green says:

"What a boon Konjola has been to our home! For years I suffered with stomach trouble that not only caused me great misery, but undermined my health generally. I did not know what it was to have an appetite nor to relish food. I ate as little as I could—just enough to keep me alive—for after every meal came suffering. The food was not digested, and gas formed, causing bloating, abdominal pains and heart palpitation. I tried everything for the stomach that was recommended, but grew constantly worse. The decision to give this new Konjola a trial came after I read numerous endorsements in the paper, and I am well and happy today because I made this decision. Konjola, just two bottles of it, relieved me completely. Within two weeks I was always hungry, and my stomach digested everything I ate. Since that time my strength and weight have increased, and every day I am stronger.

"Seeing what Konjola had done for me, my wife, long a sufferer from neuritis, started the treatment. She was highly nervous, too, and her stomach was no better than mine had been before taking Konjola. Well, this wonderful medicine did as well by her as it did for me, and in four weeks she was freed entirely from the terrors of neuritis. Within two weeks her stomach was restored to normal and her nerves were calmed. She had tried medicines and had consulted the best doctors available, but found in Konjola the first and only relief she ever had. Today she is doing all the housework, is gaining in weight, and both of us are happier than we have been in years because we both are well. Our home will never be without Konjola, and my wife joins me in giving Konjola our heartiest endorsement."

Cases like these—thousands of them—make up the splendid history of this master compound. It means much to all who suffer to know that in four months more than a million bottles of Konjola have been sold. There must be a reason. There is—and that is this: Konjola makes good.

Konjola is sold by LOVE AND MEGOWN, The Druggist, 204 East Washington Street, this city.

Motorists Appreciate Road Information, Says Hanlon

Tourists and motorists in general are more than grateful for the road information that they receive, is the opinion of Bernard Hanlon, manager of the New Castle Motor club.

According to Mr. Hanlon, tourists stop at the club and get information in regard to routes, detours and what not prior to taking a lengthy trip. Invariably they write back to the motor club telling how they find the roads, if there are any new detours or openings and thanking Mr. Hanlon for the information.

Letters have been received from California, Florida, in fact every part of the continent where the local motor club have directed persons on their route.

"No," stated Mr. Hanlon, "they are not all local persons whosend back the letters of thanks. Many come from casual tourists who stop in at the motor club to get information on roads leading to most anywhere. If they find that the route has been well chosen they invariably write back and send their thanks for the information."

"Of course we get letters from practically all of the local folks from whom we have directed on their routes. They are all kind enough to write us a line and tell the conditions of the roads and whether they are as stated on the maps which we have to go by."

Fame Of New Castle Team Is Spreading

Fame, generally speaking, is something we have today and may have lost in the tomorrow, but there is one thing sure that the fame of this city no longer depends entirely on the fact that it is the greatest tin center of the world.

Its much discussed football team has become so well known, that there appears to be few points that it may not have been heard of, especially in the eastern part of the United States.

Recently a traveling salesman from Pittsburgh visited a local merchant and in the course of conversation, it was the salesman who brought up the subject of the New Castle High school team.

Of course, he had both a willing listener, and he went on to tell, how, just before Thanksgiving, he was seated in the lobby of the Pennsylvania hotel, in New York.

He remarked to his companion, whom he had been talking with for some time, that he must get busy and get back to Pittsburgh to see the Pitt-State contest.

As he made this remark, a third man turned and said "Do you know where New Castle is"?

The traveling man replied to this stranger that he knew the place very well, making regular calls there.

"I hear" continued the stranger, "that they have some High school football team out there in that city. Any team that has gained the fame that that High school has, must be some bunch of players. I have a big notion to drop over there and see them. I have been hearing of them in all parts of the country, wherever I go".

"I bring this information to you for what it is worth" said the Pittsburgh salesman to the local merchant, "but I think it speaks remarkably well for your football team and the city".

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Another boarder has been added to the growing list of court house denizens. Several mornings ago a big bushy tailed squirrel, one of the fox variety, crept across the lawn, looked around a bit and then decided that it was good enough for him as a home.

This makes six squirrels up there, and if the increase keeps on, the court house lawn will some day look like the capitol grounds at Harrisburg.

The squirrels are an attraction up there and the commissioners have provided modern apartments for them out in the trees. Hot and cold running water, depending upon the weather, southern exposure, and plenty of grounds.

Thus far the squirrel have not got to the habit of taking peanuts from strangers, and the commissioners have had to provide field corn on the cob for them.

One of the commissioners, a bashful lad, who has been paying for the corn himself, believes that perhaps there are some farmers in the county who would like to contribute a bushel of field corn to the squirrels.

Don't be bashful, you fellows out in Slippery Rock, or Washington, or Pulaski township. Or in fact any township in the county. The squirrels can use a lot of corn during the coming winter months, and it would be a friendly gesture at least.

Now if squirrels ate strawberries I know where I could yet a bushel of the luscious berries. Pres Buchanan out of Pulaski has the finest strawberries in the state (any question about that) and if the bushy tailed berders had any sense they would eat strawberries. But they don't and anyway the berries are not so plentiful just now.

They don't eat eggs or I would suggest a donation from Ed Hoye out in Union township. And they don't eat gladioli or I could call up Harry Good in Enon Valley. They are particular squirrels and they insist upon yellow field corn, raised in Lawrence county. Now who wants to be first to kick in with a basket of corn for the squirrels.

During the recent agitation for a boarding house for the four elephants, there was a question as to whether or not the squirrel house on the court house lawn would do any good. P. O. Elder suggested that if the elephants would check their trunks at the baggage station it might be done, but the keeper couldn't see it that way.

The newspapers outside of New Castle are taking the W. P. I. A. L. suspension of the Red and Black with as much humor as we are here. After reading the articles in half a dozen papers, the Beaver Falls folks won't think much of that cup.

One Pittsburgh writer suggests a ten-team league to supercede the W. P. I. A. L. and thus put the bigger teams in a classification where there will really be some competition. This suggestion seems to be a worthy one and might bear some thought from the local school athletic authorities.

When you and I were kids the idea of hooking a ride on the back end of a street car was considered a good one. It never was a good idea, of course, but even at that there wasn't much danger from automobiles then. The idea today is a dangerous one and those three youngsters who rode on the back of a south side car the other evening were courting a trip to the hospital.

So many things can happen and with the number of automobiles following the car, they might easily have fallen off and dropped in the path of an oncoming car.

Considerable roaming will be done around criminal court this week and next. Now there's a treat for you. Sitting around listening to folks defending themselves against various and sundry charges, and then waiting for a jury to make up its mind.

T. E. Weide and the conductor of this colyum are in perfect accord in at least one thing and that is that too much time is wasted in the federal court. Mr. Weide just finished serving a two weeks sentence in the Pittsburgh session of the federal court and his idea would be to snap out of it a bit.

J. Dan Reeble says amen to the idea, for Dan lost six pounds in the Erie session pacing up and down the corridor of the federal building waiting for something to turn up.

Does anybody know what has become of the old fashioned engine and cars that were made for youngsters? Not electric ones, not these stem winders, just an engine and cars that can be pulled across the floor. Thus far not a one can be found in this town.

Local Young Man On Western Tour Sees Burning Well

William R. Dice Of Mt. Jackson Sees Flaming Oil Well In California

To witness a burning oil well was the experience of William R. Dice of Mount Jackson who has just returned from a motor trip of the middle and far west, a tour which covered some 12,000 miles in all and which lasted some eight months.

While at Santa Fe Springs, in California, Mr. Dice chanced to see an oil well which at the time had been burning for a month. The flames were still approximately some 200 feet in the air. Guards, stated Mr. Dice, kept curious onlookers at a safe distance back from the roaring flames.

The young man who is a graduate of the Mt. Jackson high school in the class of 1924, toured the west following his graduation from a mechanical school in Kansas City. He in turn visited Colorado, Nevada, California, thence to Oregon and Washington and throughout the Northwest back to Kansas City from where he returned home.

Seal Sale Helps Reduce Death Rate

Anti-Tuberculosis Societies Aid In Reducing White Plague Deaths

That anti-tuberculosis societies in the state of Pennsylvania have been a material aid in reducing the number of deaths from the white plague is shown by a table of statistics released today by the Lawrence County Tuberculosis Society, who are conducting a campaign for the sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals so that their work may be continued in the county.

The figures made available show that in the year 1906 the number of deaths from tuberculosis in all forms was 10,780. The rate per 100,000 was 150.9. These tuberculosis deaths dropped under the 10,000 mark in 1912 and 1913, but in 1914 the number of deaths again rose to over the 10,000 mark and continued until 1920, when the number dropped to 9,213. Since 1920 the decrease in the number of deaths from tuberculosis has been gradual until, in 1927, the number was 6,809. The death rate was 70 per 100,000 of population.

Seals have been sent to people of New Castle and Lawrence county, and so far returns from the seals have been satisfying to the society. However, all seals are not in and the society would like the people of New Castle and the county to remember that the sale of seals is vital to the life of the organization.

Saturday the Girl Scouts of New Castle will again sell the seals in the downtown district, so that the shoppers may have a chance to buy them.

C. Of C. Directors May Have Coming Meeting Cancelled

Meeting Of December 20, Will Be Called At Direction Of President Ramsey

According to the statement of James W. Cole, secretary of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, the next meeting of the board of directors which is scheduled for 12 o'clock noon on Thursday, December 20 at the Elks club has been left to the call of Ira Ramsey, president.

This is the scheduled time for the next meeting but due to the Christmas business rush it was deemed advisable to omit this meeting if at all possible, states Mr. Cole.

In case important business should arise, a special meeting will be called by President Ramsey on that date. In case no meeting is deemed necessary, the next meeting of the directors will take place on January 3, 1929 at the same time and place.

Nature Club Now Being Organized At Senior High

Thirty Students To Be Members Of New Club; New Plants Received

Plans are under way for the organization of a "Nature Club" at the Senior High school, according to reports from supervisors of the biology department. Some of the biology classes have been canvassed and most of the students have expressed their desire for membership. However, the number will probably be limited to 30 members.

The purpose of the club will be to promote a healthy interest in all phases of nature and will begin with a study of winter birds, both resident and visiting species. Many kinds of winter birds are found in the vicinity of New Castle and nearby places. These will also be studied.

Plants, and many of the rarer kinds, now hold the attention of biology pupils. Recently a shipment was received from a local greenhouse and is now being transplanted and arranged in the new electrically heated room of the biology department. Many tropical species are also represented in this room.

Another new thing that has been added to the new biology department is the aquarium, where the different kinds of fish are kept. The aquarium is electrically heated. It contains many different species of fish which were taken from streams in New Castle and Lawrence county. Mr. Cassillo and Mr. Black, the supervisors, who have made this addition possible, have built the aquarium in such a way so that the fish are always swimming in fresh running water. The bottom of the aquarium is laid out with a coating of thin sand.

Different rocks have been placed in the aquarium, making a beautiful sight when the fish swim under them. The supervisors in charge have also planted ferns and other tropical plants which can grow in water. The aquarium is also arranged in such a way that the fish always have a healthy supply of food.

This addition, along with the new plants which have been lately received, and with the other things now being added, in a short time is expected to make the Senior High biology department rank with the best in the state for a high school.

Baltimore Man Is Visitor Here

H. B. Stewart of Baltimore, Md., chief locater and auditor for the Newark shoe stores throughout the United States, was a visitor in New Castle recently, visiting Local Manager W. H. Southern.

While here the Newark official made a tour of the city, visiting places of interest. He expressed later that he had enjoyed his visit immensely and that he was deeply impressed with New Castle in general.

So many words have double meaning. "It", for example, may mean sex appeal or a new infant.

Christopher Wins Honors At State

Local Boy Elected Member Of Educational Fraternity At Penn State

C. F. Christopher, a son of John Christopher of South Jefferson street, now a junior at the Pennsylvania State College, was honored recently by being initiated into Kappa Phi Kappa, honorary educational fraternity.

Christopher was one of a group of seven who were elected to the fraternity. In the group were two superintendents of school, a principal of a high school and an instructor. Members of Kappa Phi Kappa include college presidents, deans, state educational officers, superintendents, principals and instructors.

This is one of the many honors that Christopher has achieved during his college career. He is the class historian and is also a member of the varsity boxing team this year.

Plan To Improve Franklin Highway

Over 18,000 Feet Of Road In Indiana County Will Be Concreted

A three-mile stretch of the Ben Franklin highway in Indiana county will be paved in the near future, according to the plans which are now being made by the Pennsylvania State Department of Highways.

The portion to be improved with concrete is 18,312 feet long. It is in Cherryhill, Pine and Buffington townships. Other projects which will be put to bid this week are in Huntingdon, Jefferson, Mercer, Columbia, Montgomery, Potter and Schuylkill counties. The project in Mercer county consists of 32,632 feet of concrete, to be laid in Sandy Lake borough, New Vernon and Perry townships.

Entire amount put to bid by the state will approximate 25 miles of concrete.

Your Broadway And Mine

By WALTER WINCHELL

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to the New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Representative locals had the choice chairs at the eventful premiere of F. Ziegfeld's "Whoopee," which crashed the Broadway heavens the other night. Of course, some of the less important natives got in, also. The frau of a newly rich Go-Ghettoer occupied a front pew on the isle, weighted down with mascara, rouge, and at least a dozen orchids.

A flip cracker audibly observed: "She looks like a well-kept grave."

AN ALIBI PERFECT

Then there's the experience of Artie Auerbach, the tabloid photographer, who frequented a Hester street clothes shop, and complained to the herring tearer that the left shoulder of the coat came down to his elbow. "Look at this shoulder," growled Artie. "It's too far down!"

"Can I help it if the floor is slanting?" was the retort.

A PRAYER

Make me too brave to lie or be unkind,
Make too understanding, too, to mind
The little hurts companions give—and friends,
The careless hurts that no one quite intends.
Make me too thoughtful to hurt others so.
Help me to know
The inmost hearts of those for whom I care,
Their secret wishes, all the loads they bear,
That I may add my courage to their own.
May I make lonely folks feel less alone
And happier ones a little happier—yet
May I forget
What ought to be forgotten and recall,
Unfailing, all
That ought to be recalled, each kindly thing,
Forgetting what may sting!
To all upon my way, day after day,
Let me be joy! be hope! Let my life sing!

—Mary Carolyn Davies.

IN FEWER WORDS

A most amusing description of Britishers was once made by Donald Barr Chidsey, the Park Rowgue, who sent a postcard from London which read: "This certainly is a funny place. They all talk like actors!"

HEHEH!

The breeziest of the allegedly new Scotch sillies is relayed by Judge, and concerns the Scotchman who presented his wife with a new set of paper dishes—and an eraser!

BY WAY OF REPORT

Many of the better magazines and dailies are spurning the advertising copy of well-known products simply because they do not believe the testimonials or the slogans. The Saturday Evening Post and the N. Y. Times are two publicans which edit advertising copy and make the advertisers like it.

And you might have noticed that the ad of a certain popular cigarette doesn't contain the word tobacco, because the ciggie contains 90 per cent of sweet clover.

GAG

Take it from J. P. Cappello, who avers that he really overheard it in the home of one of those modern mothers who was a school teacher before she married. The governess had come to complain that the child, a girl, was picking up profanity. "And I cannot do a thing with her," pouted the governess. "Only just now she said to me: 'Aw, what the hell'!"

"My dear," reprimanded the former school teacher, as she strokes the child's head, "you must not say 'what the hell.' It's 'why the hell'!"

A SONG HIT

One of the greatest song hits of the year is "I Can't Give You Anything but Love," but it is not, as was carelessly stated recently, selling 200,000 copies daily. The ditty is the hit of "Blackbirds," the all-colored revusical. It made the composer, Jimmy McHugh, popular with the better class, although he has written hits for years. It also brought prestige to Lew Fields' daughter, Dorothy, making her debut as a lyricist. But what we started out to report was that the delightful song might never have been known, for it was in the score of "Delmar's Revels" earlier in the year and chuckd out during the first week. It might have saved that show, for "Little Jessie James" only had one song hit, which gave the girl-opera a long distance run. That redeeming feature was called "I Love You".

THE RETORT SWELL

Frank Fay, who succeeds Bill Fields in Mr. Carroll's "Vanities" revue, had a tiff with an interior decorator the other afternoon at his apartment. The quarrel waxed hot for a while, when the man chirped:

"Mr. Fay, is this going to be a battle of wits?"

"If it is," was the indifferent retort, 'you have come unarmed!"

"Keep Your Feet Dry!" Wear Rubbers, Says Appel To Men Of This State

"The time has fortunately long since passed when the average man and woman, fearing the rigors of winter, suddenly adopted red flannels and chest protectors at the first appearance of cold weather. Indeed the pendulum has swung quite the other way, and while much common sense is thus displayed and better health results, there is always the possibility of going to extremes," said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, State Secretary of Health, today.

"While human adaptability to climatic conditions is remarkable, it also has its limitations; and these frequently are overlooked until the penalty for gross carelessness or disregard makes itself apparent by way of disease. One can bank on nature for a great deal but it is an excellent plan also to realize its limitations.

"One of the matters that needs especial attention at this season of the year, indeed at all seasons, is proper protection for the feet in wet or sloppy weather. Fortunately fashion has sensibly decreed that the feminine foot shall be shod in protective gear when the ground is damp. Therefore, for the majority the only risk in this matter arises when one is literally caught in the rain. The thin shoes lacking the assistance of the galosh is likely to result in wet feet. Under such conditions the shoes and stockings should be removed as soon as possible even though decided inconvenience be required to accomplish it. Far better that than a cold, pneumonia, or worse.

"However, be that as it may, one of the greatest hazards in this connection is now run by the male of the species. To him, 'rubbers' for some illogical reason are more of less considered to be an indication of feminism. Under the false security of heavier soles men will therefore valiantly and foolishly splash along on rain-soaked pavements and make their way through slush—a notoriously penetrating substance—and thus consider their masculinity vindicated by the noticeable lack of any kind of additional foot protection.

"It is safe to say that many hundreds of men will this winter become very ill and some will die for the very simple reason that their feet got wet and then remained for some time afterward. This statement also applies to many women and children. Therefore, on your guard against wet feet."

The Nebular Hypothesis

By S. S. MYERS

"I have just read an article on astronomy in a magazine, which incidentally remarks that the 'Nebular Hypothesis has been rejected'. What is meant by Nebular Hypothesis, and why was it rejected?"

During the latter part of the eighteenth century, Laplace, an illustrious French mathematician, worked out a theory of the origin of the solar system which is known as the Nebular Hypothesis. For a century and a half it was generally accepted by astronomers, undergoing some modification in details, but the outline of the original fabric of thought remained the same.

According to this theory the materials which are now found in the sun and planets was originally a cloud of dark, non luminous dust, such as may now be seen here and there throughout the universe. Eventually it was touched into vibration, producing light and heat. The mutual attraction of its particles caused it to assume a globular form, to acquire a rotary motion and become hotter. The more it condensed the more rapidly it whirled, flatening at the poles and bulging at the center. The centrifical force finally became so great that the central attraction could no longer restrain the matter along the equatorial regions and a ring escaped, or was thrown off at the equartor. That part of the ring which contained the least matter, gradually separted and it finally condensed into a globe. Thus was formed the first planet—Neptune.

After the ring was thrown off the original body rotated still more swiftly and another ring was liberated. And so on, one after another rings were thrown off and rolled up and condensed into planets, each revolving on its own axis.

The planets being at first merely globes of hot gas, bulged at the center and, in turn, threw off one or more rings which condensed into moons. If the matter in a ring thus thrown off happened to be evenly balanced all the way around, it would be liable to cool off without condensing into a globe Consequently rings of Saturn have been pointed out as an example of such a happening—"A moon spoiled in the making."

While the Nebular Hypothesis was an interesting and plausible theory, and seemed to meet the requirements generally, there were still some physical conditions that refused to harmonize. For instance it did not explain the elliptical orbits of the planets. If they had been cast off from the central mass as rings their orbits would have been complete circles instead of ellipses. The ellipses would indicate that they had originally approached the sun from outer space and the repelling power of that orb, combined with their own swift movement, had sent them around the sun and off into space again thus, forming the ellipses.

Then again, if the outer planets were formed first they would show a much further advanced stage of development than Mars, the Earth and Venus, notwithstanding the difference in size or bulk. Yet the inner planets show a much further advanced stage of maturity. In addition to these there are other things that could not be accounted for by the nebular hypothesis.

It remained for Chamberlain and Moulton of Chicago University, and Jeans and Jeffreys of England to work out a theory which explains all phenomena in the solar system. Furthermore, since 1925 we have been having an example in Nova Pictoris of the manner in which our solar system was brought into being. That is by the Tidal process. The latest theory sets forth that at one time, millions of years ago, our sun lived all alone, wthout planets. Then another sun, much larger than ours, passed within a few million miles of it and caused an immense tidal wave, pulling it entirely away from our sun—so far away that it broke up into sections and condensed into the planets which constitute our solar system. The planets, losing the attractfon of the other, swiftly passing sun, were drawn back toward the original mass—our sun, but were forced around it, forming ellipses.

This does not do away entirely with the nebular hypothesis, because our sun was undoubtedly a huge nebula at one time, condensing to its present diameter of 886,500 miles.

In 1850 congress decided to replace the old wings of the capitol by new ones. Thomas U. Walter of Philadelphia was selected as architect and the work was in progress through the Civil war.

SIX DEATHS BLAMED ON MINE OFFICIALS

WELCH, W. Va., Dec. 11.—Holding that the approximate cause of the explosion in the Spice Creek mine of the Princess-Pocahontas Coal Company on November 30, that took a toll of six lives, was "the negligence and carelessness of the operating officials" and possibly one of the men killed, a coroner's jury today recommended an investigation of violations of the mining law by the McDowell county grand jury.

Walter removed the original dome and replaced it with the present one 287 feet above the base line, 135 feet the diameter of the base line. It is of iron constructed to expand and contract with temperature variations.

Some 3,000 Hear Special Services

Members Of Colored Quintet Have Charge Of Tabernacle Services Monday

SONGS FEATURE SPECIAL SERVICES

Some 3,000 persons, the largest and most enthusiastic crowd that has ever filled Everybody's tabernacle located at the corner of South Mill and Friendship streets, attended and heard the special song and testimonial services which were conducted Monday evening by the members of the Alliance Colored quintet.

At 7:30 p. m., the scheduled time for the services to start, there was not a seat in the vast tabernacle to be found vacant. Every seat was filled and persons were seated on steps leading to the altar, the entire altar was overflowing with people and all of the aisles were jammed with eager listeners. At the rear of the tabernacle in the large space not filled with seats stood many more.

It was the gala night for the evangelistic party under the supervision of Evangelist C. H. Erickson and his special party who have been in the city conducting a religious campaign for the past 12 weeks. It was a night given over entirely to the colored quintet who have furnished all of the vocal and instrumental music during the entire campaign.

The large audience of New Castle folk heard five distinct sermons: one from each member of the quintet who told his life story, of how he had been brought to God and of the goodness that had come into his life since his coming to Christ and salvation.

Each in turn told of how finally 7½ years ago, after years of wandering and sinning, of how they had all been converted and finally come together to go out as a part of God's work which they deemed was necessary in the imparting of His word to the masses.

It was an interesting story. Each member of the quintet had an interesting story to tell and how finally each were saved and brought to God. Some of the quintet's parents were born in slavery; other members of the group had been brought up in Christian homes; each had a different life story but practically the same story of conversion.

The members of the quintet are J. W. Parker, leader; E. A. Talbert, H. G. Hodges, S. R. Jones and F. H. Lacy. Each had a single sermon which they imparted to the audience. S. R. Jones, youngest member of the group, acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the various members to the audience. However, the quintet needed no introduction. Each and every person in the well packed tabernacle had listened to their songs and knew the members.

Interpolating the program of sermon testimonials by the colored quintet members, were songs, some solos by members, some by the entire quintet and then instrumental music which they rendered.

S. R. Jones, master of ceremonies, then called on Rev. Erickson. The evangelist was received with a burst of applause which echoed throughout the entire tabernacle. Rev. Erickson made a few brief remarks, making the announcements and asked that the offering for the evening, which was a special one for the quintet, be made as generous as possible.

It was also announced that there will be services every evening until the close of the campaign which will take place on the evening of December 18. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week at 10 a. m. there will also be special morning services held at the Christian Missionary church on Pearson street.

Tonight the evangelist will preach a special sermon on "Healing" and will answer all sincere questions concerning healing and what it is doing and has done for persons who have come to Christ. Sunday and Monday evenings the evangelist will tell his own life story and how he was brought to Christ and consequently how he chose his life's work in evangelism.

Wednesday evening there will also be another special service on "Heaven". Thursday will be a special testimonial service.

Scranton Man Says Kudzinowski Killed Harry Quinn In 1924

Brother Of Slayer Now Under Arrest Admits Kudzinowski Told Him Of Slaying

(International News Service)

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 11. — Verification of Peter Kudzinowski's story that he killed Harry Quinn, a miner, in Scranton, Pa., in March, 1924, was obtained by the police here today from the slayer's brother, Frank Rogers, of 76 Pennington avenue, Scranton. Kudzinowski was brought back to Jersey City from Detroit after he confessed to the murder of seven-year-old Joe Storelli, of New York, on November 17.

Rogers said his brother told him of Quinn's death and that he had given him money to flee to New York. Rogers added that he had withheld the news from the police because he feared for Kudzinowski's safety, police said.

After Rogers had given his statement two detectives left for Scranton to question Kudzinowski's mother, Mrs. Veronica Kudzinowski of 3521 Winfield avenue, to whom he is supposed to have confessed the two crimes.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

PETER IS PUZZLED

Peter sat up suddenly and looked about him.

Had he arrived at the Rabbit burrow? Peter peered about but couldn't see anything he thought looked like one. Unless Peter was very much mistaken Dove had brought him back to the very same place from which they had started out to join the Passenger Pigeons. That was surely the same old gnarled apple tree!

And if there wasn't Dove snuggled on its lowest branch. How did he get there so quickly and without the boy's seeing him! It was all very puzzling and Peter rubbed his head and tried to make it out. Then he heard a queer, choky sort of sound and looked up. Dove was laughing at him.

"Well, well, well! I had begun to think that you were never going to wake up enough to talk to me," chuckled that bird. "I knew that you heard what I was saying though, for you grunted a reply once in a while. When I told you about the slaughter in the Great Woods you screamed just as loud as you could!"

"When you told me! I screamed!" cried the boy in amazement. "What are you talking about? Weren't you my aeroplane? Didn't we just escape the Hungry Hawk? Wasn't I in the Great Woods? Didn't I see the Pigeons knocked from their perches with my very own eyes?"

"Well I should say not!" declared Dove, chuckling. "You have been asleep ever since I have been in this tree. I tried my best to wake you up by telling you the story of the Passenger Pigeons and their fate, just as I heard it from my grandfather, many moons ago."

"Of all things!" gasped Peter. "And so I never rode on the Milky Way at all! It was so glorious, too.

"What a shame that I was only dreaming, for that is what I must have been doing, you know, all the time you were talking.

"What did you mean by saying you told me about the fate of the Passenger Pigeons? Has anything happened to them?"

At this question of Peter's, Dove sighed deeply.

"I should say there had," murmured he. "Why, there are no more Passenger Pigeons in all the land. I and two brothers are the last of our race, and in a short time we, too, shall be gone."

Big Aerial Truck Answers 10 Boxes

Pirsch Truck Answers All Other Alarms Except Few In Seventh Ward

Only ten fire alarm boxes are answered on the first alarm by the big aerial truck at the Central Fire department since the new Pirsch truck was put into service, states First Chief Charles H. Lynn.

The boxes answered by the aerial truck are as follows:

13—Shenango Valley hospital.
16—North and Beaver streets.
25—Washington street and Cochran Way.
26—East Washington street.
28—Washington and Mill streets.
31—Court and Washington streets.
411—Almira Home.
55—Moravia street and Long avenue.
81—New Castle hospital.
83—Mill stret and Long avenue.

Truck B, the Pirsch service truck, answers all other alarms with the exception of seven boxes in the Seventh ward, and box 37, which is located at 911 Court street.

"The new Pirsch service truck is equipped to take care of all fires where long extension ladders are not necessary," states Chief Lynn, "so the aerial truck only answers boxes which are in the same vicinity as buildings of a heighth which could not be reached by the ladders carried by the new truck."

Community Trees Will Be Numerous, Woman's Club Believes

The Women's club hopes this year for the widest cooperation yet given and the best Community Christmas illumination that the city has yet known. The Woman's club, it is recalled started the movement for illumination of trees six years ago when the club took the initiative in placing a Community tree on the diamond.

Cooperation was essential and it was given to such an extent that the enthusiasm has reached such a stage that the city council the Chamber of Commerce, the Electric league and the Women's club all are working together.

To the young and old, to the gay, careless and light-hearted, burdened and sad the vari-colored illuminated Community tree shines out a spirit of warmth and sympathy.

The Woman's club hopes this year for the best Community Christmas illumination the city has had.

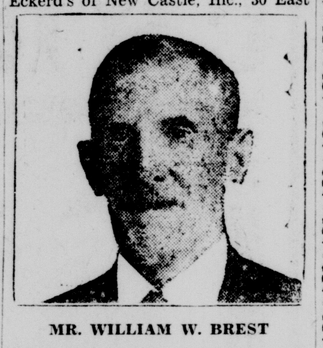
Local Man Had Aches And Pains For Over Year

Ten Herbs Made Wonderful Change, He Says; Benefited Stomach, Nerves and Liver.

"Ten Herbs has made a wonderful change in me," was the recent statement of Mr. William W. Brest, 208 North Jefferson street, New Castle, to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East



MR. WILLIAM W. BREST

Washington street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this famous new herbal medicine to crowds of men and women of all ages and stations in life.

"For more than a year I had aches and pains in every limb," Mr. Brest continued. "My stomach was badly disordered...Food did not digest as it should...My appetite failed me and what little I ate caused severe pains. I seemed to fill with gas and was constantly retching. My nerves were in very bad condition and I often wanted to be alone. I was so restless that I could not sleep properly. My system seemed to be full of bile, causing my head to ache and my complexion to be sallow. There were severe pains in my back and loins, and I had to arise several times at night.

"I read about Ten Herbs in the paper, and as I knew how it had benefited some of my neighbors, I started using your medicine. Now my stomach is working the way Nature intended. I have a good appetite, and can appreciate a good meal, as there are no bad after effects, such as indigestion, gas, or retching. My liver seems to be in splendid condition, and as a result headaches have disappeared and my complexion has greatly improved. My skin has the glow of health. Nervousness has been relieved. My kidneys show a marked improvement and the pains are gone from my limbs. I sleep soundly at night and feel refreshed in the morning. Ten Herbs deserves a strong endorsement from me."

The wonderful natural ingredients of Ten Herbs cleanse, strengthen and vitalize the whole system. At the same time they benefit the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, so that before long persons who give this medicine a fair trial usually are feeling better in every way. Ten Herbs has helped thousands throughout this section and why not you?

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

A Sudden End to Stomach Trouble

PAIN or discomfort following a meal doesn't mean you must go on a "diet." Nine times out of ten indigestion, acidity, flatulence and heartburn are caused by excess stomach acid and food fermentation.

After too hasty a lunch, or too hearty a dinner, a little "Pape's Diapepsin," instantly neutralizes excess acidity, stops that fermentation, and soothes and heals the acid-inflamed stomach lining as if by magic. Your recovery is quick and complete. Make a special point of getting a 60-cent package of "Pape's Diapepsin" from your druggist today, and so follow the example of millions all over the world who use "Pape's Diapepsin" to end indigestion and allied stomach troubles.

With "Pape's Diapepsin" handy you can eat and enjoy whatever you fancy without fear of pain or discomfort to follow. At any rate, it's worth the trial, for lots of folks have found a new freedom at the table.

Want Commission For Marshall Boy

Rotary Committee Will Ask That Special Commission Be Appointed By Court

At the meeting of the special Rotary committee who have been in charge of Dale Marshall, blind and deaf boy, it was decided to ask the court to appoint a special commission, consisting of two doctors and a lawyer, to determine the mental condition of the boy, and should the boy's mental condition prove deficient, it will be asked that he be sent to a state institution.

It has been the thought of the committee to send him to a special hospital for a lengthy examination to determine his mental status. However, at the suggestion of the local doctors it was decided by the members that the father should ask that a commission be appointed by the court to determine whether or not the boy is mentally weak and what the extent of his mental incapacity really is.

Should the special commission reveal that the mind of the boy is not weak, he will be sent immediately to a special school for the blind. Should he prove to be mentally deficient, his condition will be determined exactly and petition made to enter him into a state mental institution.

The suspicions of the committee as to the condition of the young boy's mental state are based on his actions during his confinement at the Shenango Valley hospital here. He caused considerable trouble and at one time attempted to attack one of the nurses with a chair. There have also been other actions, states Mr. Calahan, which tend to prove that the mind of the boy has become weakened.

Waynesburg Sheriff Foils Jail Break, Leaders Are Sought

Seven Prisoners In Waynesburg Jail Halted In Attempt To Saw Way To Freedom

(International News Service)

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Dec. 11.—Authorities today sought the ring leaders of an attempted jail delivery involving seven prisoners, which was frustrated by Sheriff Arno S. McClellan yesterday. The sheriff surprised the men at work with saws which he had previously heated to remove the temper.

Through a friend of one of the prisoners, hack saws were smuggled into the jail through the women's department. The saws were intercepted by a guard and heated to remove the temper. Then they were placed again where the prisoners could get them.

A few hours later the sheriff walked in on the prisoners as they were making futile efforts to saw their way through the bars over a window.

According to the sheriff the group attempting to gain freedom included Jesse Tennant, Waynesburg; John Ledson, Point Marion; Vincenso Brunetti, Bobtown; Anthony Shimkus, Perry township and Steve Miles of Jefferson, all being held for transfer to the Allegheny county workhouse, and William Hardesty, Bobtown and Harry Hennesy of Point Marion, serving jail sentences.

PETER KUDZINOWSKI HAS CONFESSED KILLING GIRL

Third Heinous Crime Tacked Onto Kudzinowski By His Own Admission

Tells Officials He Killed Five-Year-Old Girl And Disposed Of Body

(International News Service)

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 11.—Peter Kudzinowski, under indictment for the murder of seven-year-old Joseph Storelli in a marsh near here last month, confessed today that he had strangled another child last August, according to Jersey City police. The child was Julia Miodzianowska, five years old, Jersey City. She had been missing since last August 19th, when she accompanied her parents to Lake Hopatcong, N. J., where Kudzinowski said the crime was committed.

Third Crime Confessed

It was the third murder to which the arch-fiend had confessed, and authorities now believe he committed others. When first arrested in Detroit he admitted that he had killed Harry Quinn, a friend, near the Kudzinowski home in Scranton, Pa.

Police had little hope of finding the girl's body, however, for in a conflicting statement made later the slayer declared he had cut up the little girl's body in the box car, put the pieces in a bag weighted with brake shoes and thrown it off the moving train into the Delaware water gap.

The confession was obtained following a dramatic scene between the slayer and his 67-year-old mother, Mrs. Veronica Kudzinowski, of Scranton, Pa. Calling her wayward son a "bandit", she indignantly denied his statement that he had confessed the murder of the Storelli boy to her and that she shielded him.

Health Bureau Grants Permits

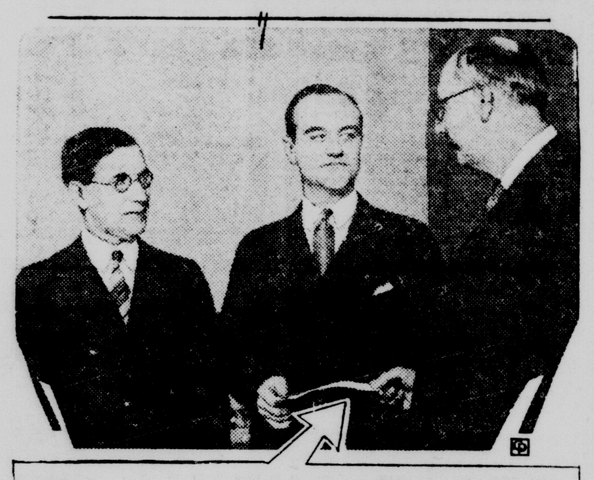
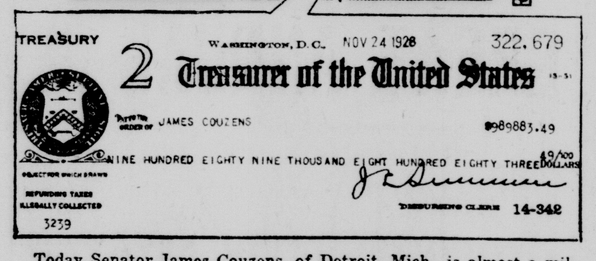
UNCLE SAM RETURNS A MILLION





Today Senator James Couzens, of Detroit, Mich., is almost a million dollars richer than he thought he was, because the federal government has had to refund to him $989,883, which he paid in taxes, in 1919. The treasury department sued the senator and others who sold Ford motor company stock to Henry Ford, claiming that the value placed on the stock was too high. The board of tax appeals decided that the valuation was actually higher than originally placed, making the increase in valuation less than the amount on which taxes were collected. Above, Frank Couzens, son of the senator, center, is seen receiving the government's check from William A. Stancil, in the internal revenue office, at Detroit. Judge Arthur J. Lacy, Couzens' attorney, is at left. Below, the check.

Mayor To Ask For Two Cars

No New Policemen Will Be Asked When Council Makes Budget

Mayor William H. Gillespie today stated that when appropriations are made by council for 1929, he will not request that any additional policemen be placed on the force.

The motorcycles however, the mayor stated, are almost new and it will not be necessary to replace them.

Confesses He Slew Teacher

Janitor's 16-Year-Old Son Confesses To Michigan Crime

(International News Service)

SHERIDAN, Mich., Dec. 11.—James Deacons, 16-year-old son of the janitor at the Sheridan school, confessed today that he beat Flossie Carter, 27-year-old school teacher, to death, according to sheriff's officers.

Deacons said he had a grudge against the teacher.

"I made up my mind three years ago that I was going to kill her," Deacons said in his amazing confession.

"I was in her class then and she wasn't good to me. I got mad at her and I stayed mad at her until this time.

"Every once in a while I'd decided to kill her. Then Friday I made up my mind.

"I asked her after school if I could ride in with her to a place where my traps were. She had to go right by there on her way home.

"She told me she'd take me. When she stopped the car, I strangled her.

"She fought back and we tumbled out of the car. Then I got a stone. I hit her. I put her back in the car. She still moved. I hit her again. She stopped moving.

"Then I got scared and ran away from the car. I ran about two miles to a lake. I threw the stone in the lake. That's why they couldn't find anything she'd been struck with."

Indifferent to everything, including his own fate, Deacons sat in his cell in the Ionia county jail engrossed in "jungle stories".

The boy's confession late yesterday that he had battered his former school teacher to death with a large stone because she had slapped him three years ago, established the innocense of Lee Bracey, 19, the young school teacher's sweetheart, who was being held by state police as her probable slayer.

"When anyone has been mean to me I never forget it," he stated stubbornly.

That "meanness," a chastisement for throwing a wad of paper when he was in the fifth grade, was nurtured in the boy's heart until he resolved, on his way to school Friday morning, to take his revenge that afternoon.

Strangled Teacher.

After school was out he waited for Miss Carter and asked her to take him out to one of his traps near Sheridan in her car.

At a lonely spot he suddenly seized her by the throat and choked her into insensibility, then attacked her, and afterwards beat her to death with a large stone.

When he arrived home later, he explained to his father, John Deacons, janitor of the Sheridan school, that the blood on his cota was that of a rabbit which he had killed and carried over his shoulder.

He was arrested by Under-Sheriff I. E. Forest of Stanton, Monday morning, while laughing and playing with the children in the Sheridan school yard, on information given by Wayne Peterson, 14. The latter told of seeing young Deacons in the car with Miss Carter the day she was slain.

Traffic Bodies Meet Wednesday

Reports From Committees Will Be Heard At Meeting At Mayor's Office

The regular weekly meeting of the New Castle traffic commission, composed of an unofficial body of civic club representatives and city officials, will be held Wednesday evening at the office of Mayor W. H. Gillespie in the City building.

This meeting will find a continuation of the discussions of problems which are confronting the city in traffic and in safety for pedestrians as well as motorists.

Reports from the special stop sign committee, of which James Cole is chairman, are expected to be heard, as well as the statement of the body working on through thoroughfares, of which Ralph Bolsinger is chairman.

These committees have been investigating the conditions of stop signs, as well as the placement of them throughout the entire city and will undoubtedly have some report and remedy to suggest, if any.

The special stop sign committee, states James W. Cole, has been investigating uses of stop signs in all of the cities throughout the state and nation.

"The keynote to the safety campaign is to educate the motorists and pedestrians," states Ray Hall, secretary of the commission, "to the pressing needs for caution and courtesy, if we are to have safety. Make New Castle the safest and most courteous traffic city in the nation, seems to be the aim," states Mr. Hall.

James B. Foster is chairman of the unofficial body, which is composed of civic club representatives.

Make Reports Of Auto Accidents

Harry Irwin, 620 South Ray street, reported to the police Monday that he was driving north on East street, when the machine of Carl Vernino, 105 Quest street, came south on East street. Both machines had the green light, but Irwin stated that the driver of the other machine made a lefthand turn onto East street, which resulted in the machines coming together. Mrs. Earl McCormick, a sister-in-law of Mr. Irwin, who was riding with him at the time, received a severe bump on the forehead.

Dr. R. A. Wallace, 318 Highland avenue, reported Monday that he was driving south on Apple alley, when a machine bearing Pennsylvania license 600-502, and going west on East Washington street at a considerable rate of speed, hit and damaged his machine as he drove out on Washington street after making a safety stop and seeing no machines coming.

FALSE ALARM

An alarm coming from box 53 called members of No. 1, No. 5 and truck B, to the vicinity of Moravia and Reiber streets at 6:55 Monday evening.

When the departments arrived at the box, they could find neither a fire or the man who pulled the box, is the report of Assistant Fire Chief Claire Stockman.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends for the kindness shown us during the illness and death of our wife and mother Mrs. Cordelia Shafter, also the Pennsylvania Shop Employes and for cars donated.

"I USED TO BE ILL A GREAT DEAL"

Then ALL-BRAN brought new health

Mrs. Richardson wrote a free and voluntary tribute to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN after she had amply proved its value in relieving constipation and promoting health.

May 3, 1927

"I used to be ill a great deal. Through the winter I always had endless colds and coughs and was forever taking purgatives. Now I almost never have a cold. I haven't taken medicine or needed any for years. And I have better health than I ever had in my life. This is not just a fad with me. I have been eating ALL-BRAN for about four years."—Mrs. M. G. Richardson, 7528 Eighteenth Ave. N. E., Seattle, Wash.

Constipation causes dozens of troubles. Headaches, sleeplessness, aching backs, dizziness, sallow cheeks—these are only a few of the outward signs. But Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings prompt, natural relief. Two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal.

Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN because it is 100 per cent bran. A healthful cereal. Delicious with milk or cream—fruits or honey added. Use in cooking too. Sprinkle into soups. Sold by all grocers. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Juniors To Present Play December 14

Clever Comedy About Youth To Be Featured By Juniors On Next Tuesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 11.—The offering "Seventeen" which is to be presented by the junior class on Tuesday evening, December 14, is described by one of the class members as follows:

"It is the tragedy of William Sylvanis Baxter, he has ceased to be 16 but is not yet 18. Baby, child, boy, youth and grown-up are definite phenomena. The world knows them and has learned to put up with them. Seventeen is not an age, it is a disease. In its turbulent bosom the heavings of a boy are at war with the beginnings of a man. In his heart William Sylvanus Baxter knows all the tortures of his heroic sex, but he is still sent on the most humiliating errands by his mother, and depends upon his father for the last nickel of spending money.

Silly Bill fell in love with Lolo, the baby-talk girl, a vapid if amiable little flirt. To woo her in a manner worthy of himself and her, he steals his father's evening clothes. When his wooings become a nuisance to the neighborhood, his mother took the clothes back and had them re-altered to fit the middle-aged form of her husband, thereby keeping William at home in the evening. But when it came to the baby talk girl's goodbye dance, not to be present was unendurable. How William Sylvanus Baxter again gets the dress suit and how he wore it to the party and the embarrassing disclosure as to its owner by a negro servant, are some of the elements in this charming comedy of youth to be presented by the junior class.

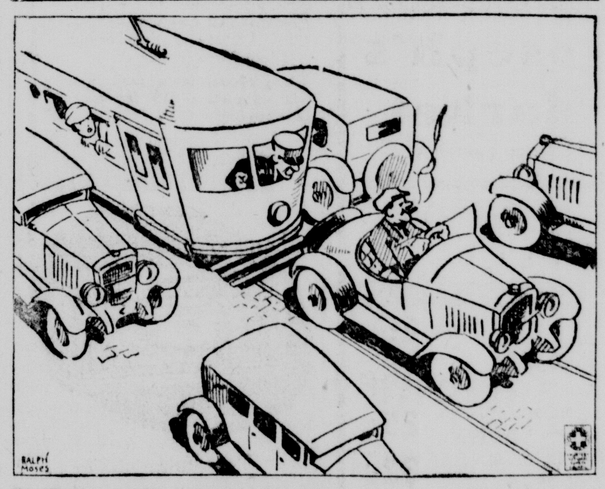
Why Motormen Get Gray!



IS IT any wonder motormen get gray? The self-satisfied driver who suddenly cuts in front of a street car, with the idea of moving up another little niche in the stream of traffic, just sort of takes it for granted that no matter what happens it will be the fault of the railroad company. The motorman who is taught to place safety above everything else, slams on the brakes just in time to avoid a serious crash.

Then the motorist hurries right on to the next street car, jumps around it and again leaps in front, with a "hit-me-if-you-dare" attitude. This fellow seems to be a lucky gentleman and one marvels at the skill he shows in leaping in front of the cars. The National Safety Council points out, however, that in spite of his cleverness and his daring he is often the victim of a serious crash in which he finds no solace in the court of law.

If the world really is as old as they say, then it certainly is small for its age.

IS IT YOUR BUSINESS —OR OURS?

Suppose the Stock Fire Insurance companies had not fostered fire prevention.

Suppose they had followed the selfish principle that, no matter how great the destruction of property, rates could be adjusted accordingly.

What then would have been America's record of loss by fire?

Frightful enough it is—in spite of the efforts of the Stock Fire Insurance companies, working through the National Board of Fire Underwriters and its departments of Building Construction, Public Fire Protection, Engineering, the Arson Bureau, Underwriters' Laboratories, and other avenues of activity.

The reduction of the fire waste or the loss of life by fire is not primarily an insurance problem. The Stock Fire Insurance companies must charge for insurance on a basis sufficient to cover losses and operating expenses.

Therefore—viewing the situation from their selfish interests only—they need be no more concerned than are other industries in working toward a reduction of the fire waste.

However, for the welfare of the country as a whole the 229 Stock Fire Insurance companies which transact the great bulk of the fire insurance business voluntarily undertook the task of heading up the forces opposed to the destruction of life and property by fire.

The results have been encouraging. People are building better. Obvious hazards are being removed. But there is pressing need for further improvement.

Future progress in this work depends largely upon the degree of cooperation extended by you and others in the use of available safety devices and measures, and in the elimination of the many known hazards which continue to threaten life and property.

Big Dannie Will Celebrate At Party On 21st Birthday

Thursday night, December 13, Dannie will have a birthday party, for Thursday Dannie will be a man. He will be 21 years old, and like all young scions of noble blood, Dannie will celebrate.

Not only will Danie be a man on Thursday, but he will be entitled to naturalization papers, for he will have been in the United States four years, having landed in New York harbor, December 13, 1924.

Dannie is only an elephant—one of those which are performing at The Cathedral this week—but in his way, he knows that something is going to happen. For weeks A. C. Bradley, closer to Dannie than any other man, has been telling him about it, so that Dannie would be on his best behavior at the time of the party.

Many officials will be present at the time of the party. Many prominent men of New Castle will help Dannie celebrate. And everyone will be given a part of Dannie's birthday cake, so that they can remember the day that an elephant became a man.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—While working on his message to the 1929 legislature, Governor John S. Fisher will remain at the executive mansion in seclusion. He said today he would close his doors to delegations and conferences and devote all his time, starting Wednesday, to the message.

"I will close the doors tomorrow and will see no one until the message is completed," the governor said. "Then I must take up the budget for that has to be in the hands of the printers during the holidays."

The governor will probably have his message printed and will not deliver it personally to the legislature.

The public compares CHRYSLER with cars costing $1,000 more

The vast motor-wise public is today unswayed by claims, but is basing its choice on actual experience. ¶ And such experience is causing it to realize that not even a thousand dollars more spent for any other make of car will buy performance, safety, luxury and true style equal to the new Chrysler. ¶ The result is a sweeping acceptance of the idea that the new Chrysler—"75" or "65"—can only be compared with cars of far higher price. For only in Chrysler can be obtained the benefits of Chrysler's principle of Standardized Quality which spreads the cost of quality and value over five great cars in five great markets. ¶ And this ever-growing acceptance continues to tax Chrysler's greatest production to the limit to satisfy.

Court House Clock Again In Repair

The clock on the court house which has been silent so long has been repaired and is now striking the hours much to the relief of the residents who live within its shadows.

Although East Side residents living within hearing distance of the clock have watches and clocks and can hear the whistle on the various industrial plants telling the time, yet they rely more on the town clock giving the correct time than any other time piece.

The lighting fixtures have also been repaired and folks can now see the time during the night.

Accident Victims Are Much Improved

Three Of Seven Injured In Crash On Youngstown Road Leave Hospital

The accident victims of Sunday evening on the Youngstown-New Castle road, a short distance this side of New Bedford, were fortunate in escaping serious injury.

Those in the New Castle hospital, Miss Helen Clark, Wilkinsburg, David Flokhart, Wilkinsburg, and William Lusku, Wilkinsburg, were all able to return to their homes late Monday. The X-ray pacture taken of the left shoulder of Miss Clark, showed that there was no fracture of the shoulder as had at first been feared.

The other four accident victims are recovering nicely in the Shenango Valley hospital, where they are still confined as a result of their injuries. They are Miss Clementina Herbert of Pittsburgh, James Aiello of Wampum, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Wakeman of Wilkinsburg.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

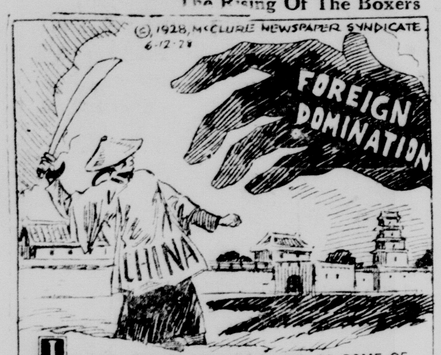
The Story Of The Boxer Rebellion
The Rising Of The Boxers



IN 1900 THE PEOPLE OF CHINA, OR SOME OF THEM, AWOKE TO THE FACT THAT BY LEASING PARTS OF THEIR COUNTRY TO THE MORE PROGRESSIVE NATIONS OR EUROPE, THEY HAD MADE THEMSELVES THE PREY OF FOREIGN DOMINATION, WHICH CONFLICTED WITH THEIR ANCIENT RELIGIOUS CUSTOMS, THEIR PATRIOTIC IDEALS AND THEIR BUSINESS INTERESTS.

WHEN THE CHINESE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT FAILED TO DO ANYTHING ABOUT IT, THE PEOPLE DECIDED TO TAKE THE MATTER IN THEIR OWN HANDS. THERE AROSE IN THE PROVINCES OF CHIHLI AND SHANTUNG IN NORTH CHINA A POWERFUL SOCIETY KNOWN AS THE "BOXERS", OR "THE FIST OF RIGHTEOUS HARMONY", WHOSE OBJECT WAS TO RID CHINA OF ALL FOREIGNERS AND EVERYTHING FOREIGN.

THE BOXERS GREW SO RAPIDLY IN NUMBERS AND POWER THAT IT WAS NOT LONG BEFORE THE SOCIETY WAS STRONGER THAN THE GOVERNMENT. THEY FOUND A LEADER IN PRINCE TUAN, A MANCHU, AND MANY OF THE IMPERIAL SOLDIERS OPENLY SIDED WITH THEM.

IN THE SPRING OF 1900 THE BOXERS WERE IN CONTROL OF ALL THE COUNTRY THAT LIES BETWEEN PEKING AND THE SEA. ALARMED FOR THE SAFETY OF FOREIGNERS IN THE CHINESE CAPITAL, THE GREAT POWERS RUSHED WARSHIPS TO THE GULF OF CHIHLI.

TOMORROW—THE BOXERS IN CONTROL.

JOHNNY PIAI WINS FROM TONY ROSS

Ross' Defensive Tactics Mar Bout

Joe Corelli Wins Six-Round Decision Over Joe Lauder

DUGAN, O'LEARY AND POLISH WIN

By ED. FRITZ

Johnny Piai, 150¼, Greenville, defeated Tony Ross, 148, formerly of Pittsburgh, now of Sharon, in a 10 round bout at the Jolly bowl last night. Piai had strength, heighth and reach on Ross and the latter fought defensively for nine of the 10 sessions.

To say that the bout was a "lullapalooza' would be flirting with the truth. Ross' defensive tactics was not fancied by the 1,000 fans and it was not until the last frame that Ross discovered he had a right hand and when he flung it the tall blonde from Greenville generally took it on the chin.

Nails Ross On Chin

At different times during the bout the crowd took after Piai because he shoved his smaller opponent around the ring but this was due to his zealousness for fight rather than any inclination to be unethical. Had the Sharonite not grabbed so often this probably would not have occurred.

Pial sent a right to the jaw that dropped Ross to one knee in the sixth round. Ross seized Piai about the stomach as he was going down and pulled himself up before Referee George Chip could register a numeral. In the seventh Ross sent a right to Piai's jaw that staggered Piai.

Ross Discovers Right

After eight rounds of defensive fighting during which he took a bad beating around the body Ross shot a right which landed. However, the punch was delivered while Piai was going away and it did not worry the Swede who bored in and soon forced Ross to hold but in the tenth Ross came to life.

He slammed four left crosses to the face and caught Piai as he came in. In fact he swarmed after Piai to make a garrison finish and landed innumerable rights to the jaw furnishing the belief that he made his defense a fast offense he would have fared better with Piai but as to being defeated, Ross was and by a wide margin.

Corelli Gets Decision

Joe Lauder of Pittsburgh, 153, fought Joe Corelli, 145¼, of Erie six rounds. Joe stood a head taller than the Erie battler but due to Corelli's clowning he made a hit with the fans. The Erie fighter just wouldn't fight an orthodox bout with Lauder and for the first couple of rounds didn't know exactly what to do. Just when he thought Corelli was through he would open up.

Lauder skimmed around the ring as he shot rights and lefts to the head of Corelli. The latter shed punches like duck feathers shed water. He kept boring into Lauder and in the sixth staggered him three times with wild punches to the head and for his forcing and swings the judges gave him the decision.

Dugan Outfights Young

Patsy Young of Pittsburgh and Mickie Dugan, Cleveland featherweights, fought a fast six round bout and Dugan took the decision on account of his showing in the last part of the fight. Patsy started off good and hooked a left to the head in the clinches that had Dugan worried.

Dugan put a left hook to stomach in the fourth that took the steam out of Young and in the fifth he drove Young to the ropes. He looked bad and appeared set for a knockout but Dugan couldn't reach a vlunerable spot. In the sixth Young took it on the run and Dugan was given the decision.

Farrow Down at Bell

Nick Polish, Aliquippa and Warren Farrow, New Castle, light heavyweights milled in a four round bout and Polish was given the decision. In the first round Warren dropped Nick just as the bell sounded but Polish got up unassisted and made his way to the corner where he recuperated.

Polish fought a cautious fight and jabbed Farrow upon the least provocation. He shifted his attack to the stomach and forced Farrow to wince. Just before the end of the sixth came Nick hit him with a right on the chin that dropped Farrow like a log and he was on the floor when the bell rang. Nick got the award.

O'Leary Beats Haggerty

Johnny Haggerty, Pittsburgh and Tom O'Leary, Wilkes-Barre, 121½ and 122¼, fought in the first four round bout and Tom was given the decision. He forced the fighting, landed the hardest blows and the judges penalized Haggerty for holding and shoving. Haggerty was guilty of this throughout the bout.

O'Leary kept boring in throughout the bout and the best the Pittsburgh boy had to offer was a fast left jab which landed sometimes and missed on others. His pushing and shoving tactics did not make a hit with the crowd or the judges and toward the latter part of the fight O'Leary was punishing him.

First Train Ride In His 21 Years

Nick Polis, 21 years old, lightheavyweight, who defeated Warren Farrow in a six-round bout, featured by two knockdowns last night at Jolly bowl, had his first ride on a railroad train yesterday.

This sounds strange but nevertheless is true and here is how it came about:

A week ago Nick rode in the auto of Deputy Commissioner of Boxing Mike Kane from Aliquippa to New Castle.

He wanted to ride a train but Mike did not have time to wait until it arrived.

Yesterday Nick had to come here by himself as Kane was busy in another city.

Nick went to the railroad station, boarded the train and arrived here "safe and sound".

"Did you get a thrill out of the ride?" he was asked.

"I liked it first rate," the youngster replied.

"Where have you been all your life?"

"I worked 16 years on a farm 'right back' of Aliquippa until five years ago when I went into the mill."

Pittsburgh Writer Defends New Castle

Jess Carver, Scholastic Sports Writer On Pittsburgh Paper, Says League Erred

Exploits New Castle As Drawing Card; Injustice Clearly Shown In Action

Jess Carver, scholastic sports editor of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, writing of the recent suspending of New Castle and California high schools by the W. P. I. A. L. has the following to say:

Some of the kick, nay, a good part of it, has been distilled from the coming W. P. I. A. L. basketball campaign by the barring for one year of New Castle high school. New Castle was set down by the league's decisions committee last Saturday for playing a non-resident student on its football team.

The committee gave New Castle a year on the shelf for its offense and, at the same time, tied a 12 months' suspension of California high for paying the carfare of two of its athletes to and from school. If there is such a thing as justice in the W. P. I. A. L. it appears as if it was miscarried Saturday. California's crime, which closely apprcaches professionalism, certainly was worse than New Castle's, which, when thoroughly explained, concerned merely a technical point, and, as Prof. Orth of the Lawrence county school, stated, would have little legal support if taken into court.

The cage race will not seem like the same hectic scramble with Coach Bridenbaugh's well-drilled Red and Black machine out in the cold. New Castle has been a prominent factor in all of the W. P. I. A. L. campaigns during the last five or six years, and its absence will be felt when time comes for the sectional eliminations next March.

In a statement from New Castle after the meeting, Prof. Orth complained bitterly over the treatment accorded New Castle, charging cut and dried methods on the part of the league. Beaver Fall's protest, according to Orth, was illegally made and came almost without warning.

It is difficult to see how the decisions committee could make a ruling on the Falls protest with such dispatch, when it did not do the same thing in the case of two former protests lodged by Beaver Falls officials following the 40-0 defeat suffered at the hands of New Castle's powerful eleven. Beaver Falls protested Ostrosky and Cuba of the Castle eleven at a meeting held here November 24, and the committee waited until Saturday to act on the matter. Neither protest was upheld, but the verbal kick made by the Beaver valley folks was almost immediately acted upon, with New Castle being given no time to present a defense.

Prof. Orth said he sought expert legal advice on the matter when he received the first inkling that Beaver Falls was going to use the protest as an ace-in-the-hole if the two other protests should be disallowed and that it was opinion of men of law that there was no basis for a just protest.

At any event, being suspended from the W. P. I. A. L. means little or nothing to New Castle. It is a certain bet that none of the league teams will see fit to boycott Coach Bridenbaugh's team, for New Castle is THE money-maker of the organization. Such a suggestion was very emphatically vetoed by the members of the league Saturday. New Castle can go on winning honors for a year without gain in the matter of a trophy or two, and remain at the same high peak that the school has occupied for the last 10 years.

In fact, the California misstep was by far the more serious of the two. Paying the transportation costs of athletes smacks of nothing short of out-and-out professionalism. California should have been set down for a year and New Castle given a six months' suspension—if at all. Depriving the school of its grid victories for the past year should have been punishment enough.

It will not be surprising to see a movement by some of the larger schools in the league toward the formation of a separate organization—possibly a conference of 10 or a dozen schools. The W. P. I. A. L. is far from strong at present, and a league of schools like New Castle, Wilkinsburg, Greensburg, Washington, Turtle Creek Union, Charleroi, Ellwood City, Butler and one or two others would furnish the present body serious and very likely fatal opposition.

Such a league would be able to do away with the unsatisfactory point system of awarding football championships, which would be more than sufficient reward for its formation.

Managers Of Boy's Teams Will Meet

Henry McNicholas assistant physical director of the Y. M. C. A. has called a meeting of the Boys league managers for 4 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. building on Wednesday afternoon.

The following teams are asked to send representatives: Indians, Castles, Acmes, Smith's Aces and Croton. Any other teams desiring to enter this popular young fellows league are asked to attend the meeting.

Slate, Weygant And Goodman On Card

Johnny Slate and Eddie Weygant of New Castle and Joey Goodman of Cleveland will box on the card that has been arranged for Youngstown Wednesday night. Johnny Kusic and Freddy Fitzgerald meet in the main bout.

Sporting Editors Visit Jolly Bowl

Church Floor League Opens

Baptists And Temple Israel Winners In Initial Games In Church Floor Loop

TWO FAST GAMES PLAYED MONDAY

The New Castle Church Basketball League opened last night at the Y. M. C. A. floor with the playing of two fast games. The First Baptists defeated the First Methodists, 26 to 10, and the Temple Israel team downed the Mahoning M. E. quintet, 36 to 10.

The Baptists led the Methodists throughout the opening game of the league. At the end of the first half the Baptists had a lead of 15 to 6, mainly through the excellent work of McKay, who caged five baskets. The Baptists increased their lead in the second half of the game, with McKay again taking the spotlight with three baskets, to give him a grand total of eight for the evening.

In the second game the Temple Israel team defeated the Mahoning M. E. in a runaway contest, 36 to 10. At the end of the first half the Temple boys had a lead of 22 to 4, with E. Solomon and J. Solomon leading the way with seven baskets between them. The third and fourth periods found the Temple team maintaining a fast stride and walking through to a lopsided victory. E. Solomon, with seven baskets, was the big scorer of the game. Zieve and J. Solomon also played good basketball for the Temple Israel team.

Joe Cumo's Father Injured In Fall

Joe Cumo stated today that unless unforeseen developments set in he will take charge of Emmett Rocco, Wednesday night when he fights Frankie Wine, at Akron. Cumo's father fell from a ladder at the Ludwig building yesterday, fracturing four ribs. His side also was penetrated by a pipe, he says. Mr. Cumo is resting as comfortable as possible.

Tom O'Leary To Battle Hoffman

Tom O'Leary, who with other boys in the stable of Jimmy Dunn, can be termed local boys, has been matched with Freddy Hoffman at Wilkes-Barre next Monday night. Wilkes-Barre is the home town of the O'Leary boys. Dick defeated Billy Kelly of Scranton last Monday night.

Those Conquering Cardinals — By Feg Murray

One team of Cardinals can win in the Yankee Stadium, anyway. The St. Louis Cards couldn't but, believe me, the Stanford Cards could, and what "Pop" Warner's Indians did to the West Point Kay-dets was nothing short of a crime—from an Eastern viewpoint. "Biff" Hoffman and his gang proved a better football team than "Biff" Jone's and "The Stanford Red" was very conspicuous when the afternoon of December 1st was over. Besides red pennants and red feathers everywhere, the ushers all wore red caps, even the exit lights were red, and many an Army player had to be painted with Mercurichrome!

Coming right on top of the slaughter of New York University by the "Oregon Aggies," is it did, the defeat of the East's "other best team" was a terrific blow to the pride of the Atlantic seaboard., and shows conclusively that better football is played on the Pacific Coast than anywhere else in the country. New York thought it had seen good passing by Harpster, but Maple of the Oregon State team was even better. New York thought it had seen great ball-carriers in Cagle and Strong, but Hofman, Fleishhacker, Sims, Wilton, Lewis and Frentrup all starred against the Army and advanced the ball practically at will.

But that boy Cagle was still a hero, even in defeat. It is not exaggerating to say that he was the whole Army team. The little running he was able to do was as ghost-like and beautiful to watch as any I have ever seen, and his passing was simply superb. The Stanford boys were all loud in their praises of the West Point All-American.

How's this for a man's All-America team?

Ends, Hickman, Illinois, and Holman, Ohio State; tackles, Lassman, New York University, and Wakeman, Cornell, gutrds, Tallman, St. Ignatus, and Herman, Boston College; center Richman, Illinois; quarter, Bowman, Army, halves, Goldman, New York Aggies, and Hackman, Tennessee; fullback, Hoffman, Stanford.

Paddy Mylott Witnesses 'Go'

Paddy Mylott, former New Castle resident, now of Norfolk, Va., discoverer of Joey Goodman, witnessed the boxing bouts at Jolly bowl last night. He came here to visit Jimmy Dunn, who had Mickie Dugan and Tom O'Leary boxing. He plans to see Goodman box at Youngstown Wednesday. Last Saturday night Goodman made a good showing when he beat Freddie Mitchell at Cincinnati.

EMMETT ROCCO TO BOX WINE

Heavyweights Scheduled To Box 10 Rounds At Akron, Ohio

Emmett Rocco, heavyweight of Ellwood City, will meet Frankie Wine, champion of South Africa, Wednesday night in a 10-round bout at Akron, O.

Wine recently defeated K. O. Christner and Rocco won from Joe Sekyra.

Rocco, it is said, is being pointed for a bout in New York. If he wins his chances will be enhanced.

Recently Rocco won from Joe Sekyra but the latter was matched to fight Young Stribling at Madison Square Garden.

If Rocco can upset Wine, which will probably prove a most difficult task, he would probably get a quick call to the east.

No More Boxing Until Christmas

Boxing bouts at Jolly bowl have been discontinued until Christmas afternoon, it was announced last night by Promoter Bill Jolly. He is trying to line up a good bout for that day, the announcer said.

(International News Service)

COLUMBIA, Mo., Dec. 11.—The University of Missouri will be closed today until January 3, the faculty announced today. So many cases of influenza have developed that it was deemed best to close the institution, according to Stratton W. Brooks, president, who stated, however that no serious cases have been reported.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN,
Sports Writer for Central Press and The New Castle News.

The presence of the venerable Joe Cantillon former major league manager and long a pilot of minor league clubs at the recent winter meeting of the minor magnates, brings to mind one of the innumerable stories told concerning him.

It was during Cantillon's term as manager of the Washington club that Jack Hendricks came to that team for a tryout. Hendricks is now manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Coincident with Hendricks arrival in Washington one of the papers carried a story concerning him and mentioned the fact that he had stolen 65 bases in the bush leagues the previous season.

The first time Hendricks reached first base in his opening appearance Cantillon hung out the sign to steal.

Hendricks started for second with a pick-up approaching that of a cement truck and was out by several feet. When he came back to the bench Cantillon jumped him.

"I thought you were a whiz as a base stealer" growled Joe.

"That was a typographical error," explained Hendricks.

"Yah? Well, whatever that is you'll be it if you don't do any better than that from now on."

Hendricks apparently improved as he not only served his time in the majors but stepped from the playing game into the managerial ranks and stands out as one of the best managers in baseball today.

Winter Circus Scores Big Hit

William Schulz And Excel Animal Circus Are Featured Throughout Show

ELEPHANTS, CLOWNS PLEASE CHILDREN

Of necessity any notice which could be written about the Winter Circus which opened Monday evening at the Cathedral, would almost automatically turn itself into a "rave" when the reporter considers the work of William Schulz and his Excel Animal Circus.

Mr. Schulz is a showman and he has the material to work with. His dogs, ponies and sheep are perhaps the best trained dogs, ponies and sheep in the United States. Of particular interest is his six year old dog stone blind, which faithfully performs his wire walking act although he cannot see two inches in front of him.

Sheep are the least intelligent and perhaps the hardest animals in the world to train. Yet Mr. Schulz has accomplished this feat and accomplished it well. His sheep do all the conventional tricks and some tricks that are not so conventional.

Then Mr. Schulz is a strong man. In fact, it is whispered that when a lion needs to be disciplined he can pick up the beast by the tail, swing it around his head and hurl it against the bars of the cage with terrific force. On the stage it is proven that these whispers are correct.

His finale and the finale of the circus is one in which he works dogs, lions and birds in the same cage without the least friction. To do this required years of patient effort and Mr. Schulz claims to be the only showman in the business who has made a success of it.

The Gentry Brothers four performing elephants refused to perform at the opening show at The Cathedral Monday evening partly because it was their first appearance on any stage and because they were frightened when they saw a horse rearing on the other side of the stage. However at the time of the second show the giant bulls went through their routine without the slightest hitch.

Of the clowns enough cannot be said. Otto in particular was good and did his best to please his youthful constituency and was singularly successful.

Hall Warns Against Fraud Scheme Here

Credit Manager States That Company Is Getting Office Force Signatures

Ray Hall, manager of the New Castle Credit Exchange, in speaking for the merchant members of the exchange, is warning all business establishments of any kind to advise their office clerks and stenographers to be especially careful of signatures at the present time. Especially, states Mr. Hall, do not permit your office person to sign your name and then his or her name to denote who has signed for you.

The reason for the caution is that a certain type of company with so-called "high-powered" representatives have been canvassing minor business establishments thus far, and in the absence of the head they have obtained the signature of the office person for the head of the firm, he says.

The details of the contracts which are signed are of such a nature as to be exceedingly embarrassing to the business man whose office person has signed for him. Even though it be the signature of another for the business man, the terms of the contract are such that there is little argument.

Bicycle Is Stolen From Rear Of Store

Albert Perelman, 321 Boyles avenue, reported to the police Monday that his Indian bicycle had been stolen from the rear of the Perelman store, 129 East Washington street, by some unknown person. It had been placed there while the owner was painting a part of the bicycle. The bicycle was red in color and was locked at the time it was taken.

Newark Pilot—1929 Model

By QUIN HALL.

TRIS SPEAKER, the Gray Eagle of baseball, will be seen in an entirely new role when the banners are unfolded and the sides lifted on the big top next season. Speaker, who has been pretty much in the baseball limelight ever since they used to drive the old bay mare hitched to the phaeton up to the village pump for its daily quaff, will be seen piloting the Newark Bears, in the International League. That, if you recall, is the same job held down by Walter Johnson, the Big Train, last year.

Owner Bloch and President Sinnott, of the Bears, let Johnson loose when it was found that he was wanted back in Washington, his old stamping grounds, as the pilot of the Senators to succeed Bucky Harris, who will be seen next year in the pilot house at Detroit. That, naturally, left the Bears without a guiding hand, and when it was announced that they had secured Speaker for the post, everyone seemed very well satisfied. Speaker was pretty well through as a player in the big league, and Newark looked like an ideal spot for "Spoke" to land.

The general impression seems to be that John McGraw, the boss of the New York Giants, was largely responsible for securing Speaker for the Newark club at the request of the Bears' management.

"Spoke" has had experience in piloting a big league aggregation, having seen service at the helm in Cleveland, where he guided the Indians into an American League championship, and later into a world's championship at the expense of the Brooklyn club, which had won the rag in the senior circuit that particular Fall.

This is his first jump into minor league ranks, but he's all steamed up over the possibilities offered him at Newark. While he realizes that his job is no plush cushion affair, he has long had his own ideas about managing a minor league club, and at Newark he will doubtless be given a pretty free rein in putting his ideas into practice.

This business of managing a minor league club has always been considered a tougher job than taking the wheel on one of the big liners. For one thing, a man has to get better results with less material and to do so he has to use quite a lot of ingenuity. Hitting strength and speed are usually lacking in the minor league circuits. The reason is apparent. The minute the minors grab a speed artist or a hitting phenom, he is in turn speared by one of the big league clubs.

Faced with the situation, the average minor league pilot has to build his club around fellows who have been under the big top and have slowed up to such an extent that they are no longer of great value in fast company. They still have a lot of baseball in their frames, but the old pep and punch which made them valuable to the big circuits has frittered away. Johnson had quite a few of this class on the Newark Club last year, and it is probable that Speaker in taking up his new job will inherit several and be forced to use them, no matter what his present plans may call for.

Lacking speed and hitting power the minor league pilot is forced to devise means where he can pull a flag out of the fire with the material which the big leagues allow him to retain on his pay roll.

Speaker is going to be up against a heavy problem but he is going into it with his peepers open. He knows what he is up against and there are a lot of fans scattered over the country who are going to be pulling for "Spoke" to start lots of fireworks in Newark. And there are a lot of big league managers who are going to give him everything they can to help him make good with the Bears.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Dec. 11—The motor stocks and the oils led the upward move in industrial stock prices this morning. Radio pushed its way back to 311 for a new 6 point gain over Monday's close as the big bears and bulls came together in a clash over the slender blocks of stock offered.

Two things influenced the further rally in stock prices in the first hour today. First, the easing up of the money market and the feeling that most of the weak-kneed holders of stocks had been sold out.

Packard Motor's new 6-point jump to 145½ put that stock well out in front as the leader of the motor list. This is a recovery of 14 points from yesterday's low price. Chrysler at 121 was up 5¼ for the day and 10 points since yesterday noon. General Motors, Studebaker, Yellow Truck, Briggs Manufacturing and Hupp sold higher.

Standard Oils were the best ground-gainers in the oil list. Atlantic Refining sold up 2 points at 57½; Standard of New York picked up a point at 38¾ in very active trading and Standard of New York was a favorite.

Good reports from the iron and steel industry; bigger loadings and bigger earnings will fatten the pocketbooks of stockholders and bulge out the corporations' treasuries. Their stocks were firm today and well bought at slightly higher prices. Call money 8 per cent.

Mrs. Boyer is the mother of nine children, has 24 grandchildren and a number of great-grandchildren. Her eldest daughter is 70 and the youngest 50.

Senators Fight Withdrawal Of Marine Forces

Matter Of Withdrawing Marines From Nicaragua Causes Row In Senate

OPINION IS ABOUT EVENLY DIVIDED

Some Would Wait Until After President-Elect Hoover Takes Office To Act

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The administration's hint that American marines will be retained in Nicaragua at least until after March 4—when President-Elect Hoover takes office—drew sharp criticism in the Senate today from the groups that have fought to withdraw the troops.

Senator George W. Norris (R) of Nebraska, insurgent leader, intimated that the administration had deceived the Senate last spring when that body was informed the marines would be held in the Pan-American republic until after the election, held early this month. He demanded that the troops be withdrawn at once.

Should Be Kept Right There

Senator Hiram Bingham (R) of Connecticut, who defended the administration's policy toward Nicaragua in the debates last spring endorsed the continued occupation. He declared the marines were there by invitation of the Liberal president of Nicaragua and that they should be kept there as long as the existing government desired them.

Senator William H. King (D) of Utah meanwhile announced he would press for action on his resolution, forbidding the use of American soldiers in any foreign land without the consent of Congress. His bill would prevent the use of American officers to train the armies of the little nations on this continent.

The Nicaraguan muddle probably will be aired once more when the Senate considers the regular naval appropriation bill. This measure will contain appropriations to cover the salaries and expenses of the marines used in Nicaragua and opponents of the occupation can then make a direct fight for their withdrawal.

May Provide Council Car

Councilmen Fed Up On Idea Of Riding In Police Cars

Should members of city council and the mayor be compelled to ride in police cars while performing their duties? This question will be discussed, it was intimated today when members of council meets some time this week to make 1929 appropriations.

Councilmen make many views and personally investigate many complaints. They go in a body, generally and when they do are hauled to distant places in police automobiles.

Police cars haul all kinds of persons to jail and among the class which falls into the clutch of "John Law', are 'drunks' and persons who are filth-infested, it is said.

"I am not too good to ride in the police cars but it is impossible, almost to keep vermin from lodging on the seats. Sometimes intoxicated persons vomit in police cars," said an official.

"Of course some people will yell 'taxes are going up' but it is my idea that council should have a sedan in which to ride to place where they must make investigations." The official intimated the question of a councilmanic car would be discussed.

According to a report made by the superintendent of the collection of garbage, 23 dead dogs were cremated at the garbage furnace. Two cats were also tossed into the flames.
